

4705.2

A COLLECTION OF THE ADDRESSES
Anne, Queen of Great Britain
Which have been Presented to the QUEEN,

SINCE THE IMPEACHMENT
Of the REVEREND
Dr. HENRY SACHEVERELL.

In Two Parts.

PART <sup>I &</sup> II.

WITH
AN ALPHABETICAL INDEX of the Names of the Nobility, Clergy, and Gentry, that Introduc'd or Presented the said ADDRESSES.

Very proper to bind up with the Doctor's Tryal, that POSTERITY may see the Sense of the Kingdom upon that Impeachment.

LONDON,
Printed: and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall, 1713.

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 1.

P A R T II.

Kensington, June 10. 1710.

This Day was presented to Her Majesty, the following Address from the Clergy of the Arch-Deaconry of Coventry, by the Reverend Mr. Cotterel, Proctor of the Clergy of the Diocese, and the Reverend Mr. Daggett, Rector of Birmingham, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Leeds. Which Her Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously, and admitted them to kiss Her Hand.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Clergy assembled at the Arch-Deacon's Visitation, held in the City of Coventry, and the Town of Cole-shill, in the County of Warwick, and Diocese of Litchfield and Coventry, on the Tenth and Eleventh Days of May, 1710, encourag'd by Your Majesty's late gracious Acceptance of the many repeated Assurances of Your Peoples Fidelity and Affection; do, with all Humility, crave Leave to express our most hearty Concern and Sorrow, that, under Your Auspicious and Indulgent Reign, there should any Men be found so daringly Wicked and Ungrateful, as openly to Espouse and Maintain the same Detestable Principles, which gave Rise to that unnatural Rebellion, which involv'd this Nation in all the Miseries of a Long and Intestine War, the Overthrow of this Primitive Establish'd Church, and the Barbarous Murder of Your Royal Grandfather, the meekest of Kings, and the best of Men.

We humbly hope, it will be esteem'd a pardonable Presumption, that, out of our just and dutiful Sense of Your Majesty's undoubted Hereditary Right to these Kingdoms; We take this Opportunity to declare our utter Hatred and Abhorrence of those Seditious, Republican, and Traiterous Doctrines, which, of late, have been so Audaciously and Industriously spread Abroad, to no other End (as We can conceive) than to poison the Minds of Your People, and to under mine Your Majesty's undoubted Right and Prerogative.

As it is the Distinguishing Character of the Church of England, to assert and defend the Rights of Princes, by not subjecting them to the Coercion of any humane Power, either of Pope, Presbytery, or People; so we beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that we will be careful, to the utmost of our Power, to discountenance and suppress all Fatious, Jesuitical, Antimonarchical Principles and Practices, and to instruct Your People committed to our Charge, in the Indispensable Duties of Peace and Submission, and the good old Doctrines of Passive-Obedience, and Non-Resistance.

And when Your Majesty shall, to the great Satisfaction of Your Loyal Subjects, (and of none more than the CLERGY) be pleas'd to call another Parliament, and give the Convocation Leave to sit, we will continue to choose such to represent us in Both, as shall be eminently Loyal to Your Majesty, Religiously devoted to our Church, her Doctrines, Worship, Discipline, and Ordinances; shall strictly observe the known Laws of the Land, and have the tenderest Regard to the Legal Rights and Liberties of their Fellow-Subjects.

And we beg Leave farther to assure Your Majesty, that, as You have excell'd Your Royal Ancestors in Your Bounty to the Church; so we retain a due and grateful Sense of that, and other great Favours we enjoy under Your Majesty's most happy Administration.

Beseeching Almighty God, by whom Princes Reign, and to whom alone they are Accountable, that He would, in great Mercy to these Kingdoms, grant Your Majesty a Long, Peaceful, and Happy Reign over us; and that You may transmit our Church, fenc'd with the Security of wholesome Laws, and Your Crown adorn'd with all the Powers of its just Prerogative, to Your Successors of the Illustrious House of HANOVER; is the hearty and daily Prayer of,

Your Majesty's conscientiously Obedient and most Dutiful Subjects,

The following Address from the Corporation of Brecon, was presented to Her Majesty by Edward Jeffreys, Esq; their Representative in Parliament; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Ormond; and Mr. Jeffreys had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliff, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Brecon.

May it please Your Majesty,

Brecon Corporation.

YOur Majesty's most gracious Acceptance of the dutiful Addreses of our Fellow-Subjects, gives us likewise hopes of Leave to Approach Your Royal and Sacred Person, with Assurances, that tho' Factions, Republican, and Designing Spirits, have, of late, with great Warmth, endeavour'd to maintain and persuade, that certain Conditions go into the Composition of our Allegiance and Duty to Your Majesty, yet our Loyalty is fix'd upon such Principles, that admit of no Restrictions or Limitations in our Obedience.

When we observe our most Excellent Church on the one hand, and the Civil Government and State on the other, (of both which Your Majesty, notwithstanding any Popish or Fanatical Assertions, is the undoubted Supreme Head and Governor) to be treated with so much Prophaneness and Insolence, by Atheists, Deists, Observers, Reviewers, and other Church and State Libellers; we cannot otherwise than crave Leave to declare, our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, as well of all Blasphemous and Heretical Doctrines, that tend to destroy our holy Religion; as also of all Resisting and Antimonarchical Principles, that tend to breed Sedition, Faction, and Rebellion, within Your Majesty's Realms and Dominions.

We esteem it a great Happiness, that our Representative in Parliament concurs with us in these Sentiments; and it shall be always our Care to make Choice of such an one, as is noted for Loyalty to Your Majesty, firm Adherence to Monarchy and the Protestant Succession, and hearty Affection to the Church of England, as by Law Establish'd.

May Your Majesty's Reign over us be long and prosperous! May Your Glorious Arms subdue Your Enemies abroad, and Your innate Clemency and Tendency convert all that are such at home; that You may not only establish a Peace to secure us from foreign Invasions, but from Factions and Divisions among ourselves. Such a Peace is reserved only for Your Majesty's Reign; whereby the Glory of it may be perpetuated to all Generations. These are the sincere and hearty Prayers of Your Majesty's most faithful and most obedient Subjects.

In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto caused our Common Seal to be affix'd, the Twentieth Day of May, in the Ninth Year of Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

Kensington, June 14. 1710.

The following Address from the Borough of Hertford, was Presented by Charles Cesar, Esq; accompanied by the Deputy, Mayor, Recorder, and several of the Aldermen of the said Borough; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and admitted Mr. Cesar, and the rest of the Gentlemen, to the Honour of kissing Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, High-Steward, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Assistants, Freemen, and Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Hertford.

Hertford Borough.

WE (Most gracious Sovereign) Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach Your Royal Person, at this time, to assure Your Majesty, That we, from our Hearts, abhor and detest all those Seditious and Rebellious Doctrines and Positions that have of late been so industriously endeavour'd to be propagated throughout this Kingdom. We are very sensible, that nothing can be more fatally dangerous to Your Majesty's most Sacred Person, and Happy Constitution, both in Church and State, than Principles founded upon Factions, Antimonarchical, and Rebellious Notions. We therefore assure Your Majesty, We will endeavour to be represented in the next Parliament, when Your Majesty shall please to call the same, by such Members as will not be wanting in their Zeal, to support Your Majesty, our Apostolical Church, Monarchy, and the Protestant Succession, against all Attempts, either of Foreign or Domestick Enemies.

St. James's,

St. James's, June 20.

The following Address was presented by Francis Arundell, Esq; introduc'd by the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of the Household: Which was receiv'd very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, the Right Honourable the Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Bayliffs, and Burgesses, of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Northampton.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to express our utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of that pernicious Doctrine of Northampton Resistance, of late, by some, so warmly asserted and maintain'd against the rational general Sense of Your Majesty's good People.

A Doctrine inconsistent with the Laws for the Preservation of Your Majesty's Person and Government, making that Rebellion only Treason, which wants Success.

A Doctrine, by which the worst of Subjects hath a Right to judge of the Actions of the Best of Princes; who, as their Interest and Ambition leads them, will never want a Pretence to take up Arms, and dethrone their Lawful Sovereign.

And we are much surpriz'd, that a Tenet of this Nature should be so industriously advanc'd in Your Majesty's mild and most auspicious Reign. And tho' we are willing to hope, the bold Assertors of it have no Thoughts of finding a Pretence to put it in practice against Your Majesty, yet, when we consider, that the Piety, Virtue, and gentle Administration of Your Royal Grandfather, of Blessed Memory, could not defend Him from the Rage and Violence of the Men of this Republican Principle, we are excited, together with the rest of Your Faithful Subjects, to renew our Acknowledgments of Your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Crown of Your Ancestors, and to assure Your Majesty of our inviolable Duty and Obedience; and that we will sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of Your Sacred Person and Government against all Your Enemies, Foreign and Domestick: And that whenever Your Majesty shall graciously please to call a New Parliament, we will endeavour to choose such Members only, who shall truly represent us, in an unlimited Loyalty, and steady Adherence to the Interest of Your Majesty, the Protestant Succession, and the Church of England, as by Law established. In Testimony whereof, we, being assembled in Common-Council, this Ninth Day of June, in the Ninth Year of Your Majesty's Reign, have hereto affix'd our common Seal.

Kensington, June 25. 1710.

This Day, the following Address from the Corporation and Town of New-Windsor was presented to Her Majesty, by William Peisly, Esq; their Under-Steward, the Honourable George Granville, Esq; William Bowles and Charles Aldworth, Esqs; with the Reverend Mr. Dawson; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland. Which Address being read, was receiv'd very graciously; and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Steward, Under-Steward, Bailiffs, and Loyal Majority of the Burgesses, the Minister, Gentlemen, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of New-Windsor.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your most dutiful and obedient Subjects, being more immediately sensible of the Influence of Your Majesty's Government, as being oftner than our Fellow-Subjects, bless'd with the Presence of the Best of Queens, should be altogether unworthy of Your Royal Favour, should we omit any Opportunity of shewing our Duty and Zeal to Your Person and Government.

We, therefore, humbly crave Leave to assure Your Majesty, That, to the utmost, we will assert and maintain, against all Opposers, Your Majesty's Hereditary Title to these Realms, which have so long flourish'd under Your Royal Ancestors. We detest and abhor all Popish, Fanatical, and Republican Principles of Resistance and Rebellion; and are firmly resolv'd to live and die in the Communion of our truly Apostolical Church; the Church of England as by Law established, with a due Regard to Consciences truly scrupulous.

We do also, with joyful Hearts, congratulate the Happy Success of Your Majesty's Arms, under the Conduct of Your Great General, in the Reduction of the strong Town of Douay. And may the Almighty crown this, and Your other Victories, with a Happy Peace.

May Your Majesty long Reign over us, the Glory of our Nation, and Defender of our Church. And when Your Majesty shall, late, change this Temporal for an Eternal Crown, may the Dominion of these Realms, in default of Issue from Your Majesty, continue to all Generations in the Protestant Succession, as by Law established.

The

The following Address from the Borough of Appleby, in the County of Westmorland, was presented to Her Majesty the 9th Day of June, 1710, by Edward Duncomb, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and Mr. Duncomb had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Free Burghers, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Appleby, in the County of Westmorland, assembled in the Publick Hall of the said Borough.

May it please Your Sacred Majesty!

*Appleby
Borough.*

TO permit Us, amongst the rest of Your Loyal Subjects, chearfully to congratulate the Triumphs of Your Majesty's Arms, which gloriously Open'd the Campagne with Ent'ring the French Lines; And have lately oblig'd the Boasting Enemy ingloriously to retreat, and leave One of their most considerable Towns to the Mercy of the Confederate-Forces. These Advantages We thankfully attribute to that good Providence, which has hitherto constantly attended Your Majesty's just and prudent Administration. And which, We humbly hope, will, in a little time, put an End to a long, bloody, and expensive War; enable Your Majesty to restore the Tranquillity of Europe; and give the Christian World such a Peace, as shall be, in a special manner, Honourable and Advantageous to Your Majesty, and Your High Allies. This much desired Blessing, together with thousands more, which We already enjoy, under the Best Government, and the Best of Queens, would make Us completely happy, if all Your Majesty's Lige People were as sensible of their own true Interest and of their Duty, as we are. But, to our Sorrow, We observe some turbulent and unquiet Spirits, endeavouring to Trouble the Waters, and Poison the Minds of Your Majesty's Subjects, with Erroneous and Factious Tenets, tending to the Subversion of our Constitution, and the Diminution of Your Royal Prerogative; against which, We beg Leave, to protest Our Abhorrence and Detestation: And solemnly and sincerely to declare, That We look upon the Novel Doctrine of Resistance, lately reviv'd, and industriously spread, and publish'd, amongst Us, to be a dangerous Antimonarchical and Seditious Doctrine, inconsistent with the Safety of Your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, repugnant to the Loyal Principles of our Holy Church, and contrary to the ancient and excellent Laws of the Nation.

To prevent, as much as in Us lies, the fatal Effects, which loose Fanatical Notions and Opinions have formerly produc'd in these Kingdoms, We presume to assure Your Majesty, That We will take all possible Care to be fairly Represented in Your succeeding Parliament, by Men of Conscience, Honesty, and Integrity; who will think it their Duty to assert Your Majesty's undoubted Hereditary Title to the Throne, and stand in Defence of Your Sacred Person, Crown and Dignity, the Government in Church and State as by Law establish'd, and the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, against all Opposers and Pretenders whatsoever.

In Testimony of Our Sincerity, do beg Leave, to give it under Our Hands, and under the Common Seal of Our Corporation, that We are (Dread Sovereign!)

Your Majesty's most Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects.

---

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 2.

P A R T II.

Kensington, June 24. 1710.

The following Address was this Day presented to Her Majesty, by John Kynaston, Esq; introduc'd by Mr. Vice-Chamberlain; which was receiv'd very graciously, and Mr. Kynaston had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the ancient Town of Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop, and other Inhabitants.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE, Your Majesty's most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, are ambitious of distinguishing ourselves, as we have ever done to Your Royal Ancestors, so particularly to Yourself, by our steady and unshaken Duty and Allegiance. Shrewsbury Town.

And the rather, we beg Leave to Address ourselves to the Throne at this Time, because many of us have been publicly misrepresented, as Persons disaffected to Your Government, or, at least, countenancing such as are so, at the last Assizes held at this Town.

Wherefore, we look upon it as our indispensable Duty, to endeavour, in the most submissive Manner, to recommend ourselves to Your Royal Favour, by professing, solemnly, that none of us ever gave the least Occasion for such Misrepresentations, but to disclaim and detest all Principles tending to subvert Your just and hereditary Title and Authority; all Doctrines repugnant to the truly Apostolical Church, establish'd by Law; all Attempts to frustrate the Protestant Succession in the Line of Hanover; and all the restless Designs of those who aim at aspersing unjustly their Fellow-Subjects, and, consequently, animating our Enemies abroad, and creating groundless Divisions and Jealousies at home.

As hitherto we have endeavour'd to demean ourselves conformably to these Professions; so shall we, for the future, make it our study to maintain the same Character: And as a Proof of our Sincerity, whenever Your Majesty shall think fit to call a new Parliament, we shall endeavour to make Choice of only such Members, as, in the foregoing Respects, are of the same Principles with ourselves; being thorowly sensible, that Persons otherwise affected can never answer Your Majesty's gracious Intentions, nor ever truly represent us.

May that God, by whom You reign, continue Your Success for the Good of Europe; and Your Days, to the Joy of all Your dutiful People, as well as Terror of Your secret and open Enemies; shall be our daily Prayers and Wishes. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affix'd our Common Seal, and subscrib'd our Names this 26th day of May, in the Ninth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

that it may be have ended. This was added by J. D. not know what hand.

Kensington, June 25. 1710.

This day, the Two following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty by Sir Symon Harcourt Kt. introduced by the Right Hon. Thomas Coke Esq; Vice-Chamberlain. Which Addresses the Queen receiv'd very graciously; and Sir Symon Harcourt had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, and Grand-Jury, at the Great-Sessions held for the County of Cardigan; and likewise of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and Principal Gentlemen of the said County of Cardigan, the 4th day of May, 1710.

Cardigan
County.

IF Your Majesty's Title to the Crown were founded only on Your Princely Wisdom, and Piety; If our Holy and Apostolick Church had nothing else but the Purity of its Doctrine to recommend it; good Subjects and good Christians would, with all Alacrity, submit themselves to a Constitution so Regular, so Advantageous in all its Parts. But when Your Majesty's Undoubted Right is derived from Heaven, vested by Inheritance, and recogniz'd by the Laws; when our holy Church is Establish'd, and guarded by the best Security the Law can give her; and, above all, by the infallible Promises of the Gospel, that the Gates of Hell shall never prevail against her; 'tis most amazing, that any People (especially those who live under the particular Favour and Indulgence of Your Government) should controvert the one, or attempt the Destruction of the other.

It is difficult to know, what Views any Body of Men can have by raising new and needless Questions about Your Majesty's Title, or our Obedience, unless they expect a Liberty of Conscience in Loyalty, as well as in Religion. But we humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that, as we have a just Detestation and Abhorrence of all Schismatical and Antimonarchical Principles, which have, of late, been publickly professed, and industriously propagated, with an intent to lessen our Duty to Your Majesty, and Veneration to our most holy Church; so we shall always be ready (by the Example of the unshaken Loyalty of our Ancestors in the worst of Times) with our Lives and Fortunes, to support and defend Your Majesty's most Sacred Person, Regal Power and Government, the Church, and the Protestant Succession as by Law Establish'd, against all manner of Persons and Innovations whatsoever. And as we have hitherto, so we shall continue to send such Representatives into Parliament, as shall act agreeably to these our most solemn and unalterable Resolutions.

That Your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and happy; that God would be pleas'd to have Mercy on our Church; and so rule Your Heart, that Your Majesty (knowing whose Minister You are) may, above all things, seek his Honour and Glory: And that we, and all Your Subjects, (duly considering whose Authority You have) may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey Your Majesty, in him, and for him, according to his blessed Word and Ordinance, are and shall always be the Prayers of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Council, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Cardigan, and also the Grand-Jury of the said Town, at the Great-Sessions held for the Grand-Jury, the Fourth Day of May, 1710.

Cardigan
Town.

AS nothing (under God Almighty's Divine Providence) can so much contribute to the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and the Monarchical Government of this Kingdom, as an entire and due Submission and Obedience from your Subjects, founded on the Practice and Principles of the Church of England, and the Primitive and Apostolick Doctrine and Discipline thereof: So we are very sensible, that nothing can so effectually deprive us of all those Blessings, as those pernicious and unwarrantable Doctrines which, with great Industry, are, of late, set on foot, and taught, which tend to limit your loyal Subjects in the Measure of their Obedience to your Majesty, and your Royal Successors.

And it cannot but be matter of the greatest Amazement, to find, that those exploded Antimonarchical Principles should, in so serene and happy a Reign, as that of your Majesty, be again avowed, and set on foot. And as we are sensible, that 'twas that pernicious Doctrine that brought your Royal Grandfather (the best of Kings) to the Block; so we have just reason to fear, that unless some infamous and indelible Brand be put on them, ill Men may thereby be stirred up to the Disturbance of your Majesty's Government; and in consequence, the Government of these Kingdoms may once more be brought to Anarchy and Confusion.

We, therefore, (your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects) do take this Opportunity to assure your Majesty, that we shall, upon all Occasions, with our Lives and Fortunes, stand by and defend your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, the Protestant Succession, and the Church of England, as by Law Establish'd, together with the truly Apostolical Doctrines and Discipline thereof, against all their Enemies, open or private, at home or abroad.

And since we are very sensible, that nothing can so effectually contribute to bring those our loyal and just Resolutions to pass, as a careful and circumspect Choice of proper Persons to represent us in Parliament, we do assure your Majesty, that in all our subsequent Elections, we will unanimously concur to choose such a Person for a Representative, as shall make it his constant and sincere Endeavour, to see these our sincere and just Principles carried on and accomplish'd.

Kensington,

Kensington, June 26. 1710.

This Day, the following Address of the City of Lincoln, was presented to the Queen by Sir Tho. Meres, one of their Representatives in Parliament, attended by the Recorder of the said City, and introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord Dartmouth, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the ancient City of Lincoln.

WE, Your Majesty's most Loyal Subjects, altho' not the earliest in our dutiful Application to Your Majesty, yet, in our affectionate Zeal, are always as forward as any of Your Subjects, for the Preservation of Your Majesty's Sacred Government: And as our whole Body are entirely of the Church of England, and for the Purity of its Doctrine, as by Law establish'd; so we are taught by its Precepts to Worship one God, Honour the Queen, and to keep a Faith uncorrupted by any Latitudinarian Principles, that are inconsistent with Religion and Monarchy. We acknowledge Your Majesty's undoubted Hereditary Right to the Crown of these Realms; we admire Your Majesty's most Christian Example, Mercy, and loving Kindness, to all Your Subjects, and Your Majesty's great and wonderful Successes abroad.

We beg Leave to declare our utter Abhorrence of such Persons who despise all reveal'd Religion, and the Power thereof; who disavow Obedience and Non-Resistance, the essential Ligaments of a well-establish'd Monarchy, and who seem to deny what the Scriptures dictate unto us, That all Power is of God, and that they that do resist shall receive unto themselves Condemnation.

We will obey Your Majesty's Commands in Your last most gracious Speech to Your Parliament, in studying to be Quiet, and doing our Business in our several Stations, not meddling with unnecessary and endless Disputes, nor joining ourselves with those that are given to Change.

And when Your Majesty shall be pleased to call a new Parliament, we will take effectual Care to chuse such Representatives that shall have a most tender Regard for the Church of England, Your Majesty's Prerogative, and the Liberty of the Subjects.

May long Life, a Train of glorious Successes, producing an honourable Peace, and an harmonious Disposition and Union of all Your Subjects, always adorn Your Majesty's auspicious Reign; which shall be the constant Prayers of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects. Given under our Common-Seal of the Guild-hall of the said City of Lincoln, this Seventeenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand Seven hundred and Ten.

Kensington, June 26. 1710.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty, by John Curzon, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Derby, accompany'd by Michael Burton, Esq; one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the said County; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Scarfsdale. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenant, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Derby.

May it please Your Majesty,

IT is not that we are less Loyal and Faithful to Your Majesty than any of our Fellow-Subjects, tho' we so late approach Your Throne with sincere and hearty Tenders of an inviolable Duty and Allegiance to Your Sacred Person.

We are amaz'd to hear such Abominable, Blasphemous, and Antimonarchical Principles, as are daily publish'd, and industriously spread about, unpunish'd; and are so highly prejudicial to Your Majesty's undoubted Title to Your Crown, and to the Apostolical Doctrines of our Primitive and Establish'd Church.

Therefore we humbly presume to assure Your Majesty, that, with the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, we will maintain Your Majesty's undoubted Title to Your Crown, and support the Church of England, as by Law establish'd, and openly avow her Primitive Doctrine so lately preach'd to us, (notwithstanding the Censures of some, or that Heretical Position, That Princes may be Murder'd or Depos'd) being, as we are persuaded, the only real Bulwarks against Popery and Fanaticism, and all other Evils that may be destructive either to Your Majesty's Sacred Person, (under whom we enjoy so many inestimable Blessings) or to the publick Government and Peace of Your Kingdoms.

For which Blessings, we will always shew our grateful Acknowledgments; and in order to perpetuate them to us, will, in the choice of our next Representatives in Parliament, endeavour to return such Members only, who are of known and approv'd Loyalty to Your Sacred Majesty, and whose Steadiness and Zeal for our Establish'd Church, its Primitive Doctrines, the Protestant Succession, and our whole Constitution, may best express the Sentiments of a Dutiful and Loyal County, whose Prayers and Wishes are to be long happy under the Best of Princes, and most Gracious of Queens.

Kensington,

Kensington, June 25. 1710.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by John Robinson, Esq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Ormond; which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and Mr. Robinson had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and unanimous Address of the High-Sheriff, Custos Rotulorum, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen, of the County of Denbigh, assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions held by Adjournment at Wrexham, the 16th day of May, 1710.

Denbigh
County.

WHile Republican and Factions Spirits, the implacable Enemies of Your Majesty's Family and Government, are, with such Industry and Insolence, reviving and maintaining these pernicious and fatal Doctrines that pay'd the Way to the Execrable Murder of Your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, and laid these Kingdoms in Desolation and Ruin, by subverting the Constitution both in Church and State; Permit us (Most Gracious Sovereign) Your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, to approach Your Throne, and with equal Zeal and Resolution, to declare, that we do, from the bottom of our Hearts, abhor and detest all those Traiterous and Damnable Positions, which assert the Legality of Deposing or Resisting Princes upon any Pretence whatsoever; or that the People of this Nation, either collectively or representatively, have any coercive Power over the Kings or Queens of this Realm; and that we will, at the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, defend Your Majesty's Person and Hereditary Title to the Throne of Your Ancestors; the Succession in the Protestant Line; and the establish'd Doctrines, Discipline, and Worship of the most Pure and Apostolick Church of England, against all the open Assaults of foreign Enemies; and treacherous Attempts of pretended Friends at Home.

In order to prevent, as much as in us lies, these Fundamentals of our Constitution from being ever again so much as question'd, we will continue to choose such Representatives, as will firmly adhere to the inseparable Interest of Monarchy and Episcopacy, and who are loyal and affectionate Subjects to Your Majesty, not out of Interest, but Principle, and Uniform, not Occasional Sons of the Church of England.

May Your Majesty live long, to Adorn the Crown You wear, and may Your Gracious Intentions (so often express'd from the Throne) to protect the Establish'd Church of England, be ever successful; and when it shall please the Great and Good GOD (whose Authority You have, and to whom alone You are accountable for the Execution of it) to put a Period to Your Earthly Empire, may He receive You to Himself, and reward Your Pious Care of His Church-Militant here on Earth, with a far more Exceeding and Eternal Weight of Glory, in His Triumphant One in Heaven.

---

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 s. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

---

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 3.

---

PART II.

---

Kensington, June 24. 1710.

This Day, the following Address was presented to Her Majesty, by Sir John Packington, Bar. introduced by the Right Honourable Tho. Coke, Esq; Vice-Chamberlain. Which Address the Queen receiv'd very graciously; and Sir John Packington had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Pembroke, whose Names are subscrib'd.

AMong all the glorious Titles that adorn the Imperial Crown of this Realm, no- Pembroke thing gives so great a Lustre to it (except Your Majesty's wearing it) as that County of Your Majesty's being Defender of the Faith.

All the other Branches of Your Majesty's Power, (tho' of Divine Institution) seem ordain'd for the Temporal Good of Humane Society, and to respect secular Considerations; but this is a much more high and exalted Dominion, deriv'd from the Hand of God, by which Your Majesty is entrusted with the Guardianship and Protection of His sacred Rights on Earth, and are more peculiarly entituled to the noble Denomination of being his Vicegerent.

It cannot, therefore, but be Matter of publick Sorrow and Amazement, to observe the prodigious Growth of Atheism and Blasphemy, Vice and Immorality, and the open Profession of such Heretical and Dangerous Doctrines and Positions as tend immediately to subvert the Government of this Nation, both in Church and State, and this in Defiance of the Noble Pattern of Piety which Your Majesty sets before us in Your own Example, the frequent Proclamations issu'd out, by Your Majesty, to discourage such wicked and detestable Purposes and Practices; and in Violation of the many good Laws for the preventing so great Mischiefs, which, if not timely remedied, will draw down the Divine Judgment on this Nation.

We, therefore, out of the deep and sorrowful Sense we have of this impending Danger, of our Duty to Almighty God, and inviolable Obedience and Fidelity to Your Majesty, beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that as we will faithfully and zealously maintain and defend Your Majesty's Person, Regal Power and Government, and the Succession in the Protestant Line, so will we unite our most powerful Endeavours, in pursuing all such Measures as Your Majesty shall judge most effectual to discountenance and suppress all Blasphemy, Vice, and Immorality, and to defeat and disappoint all such Wicked Designs as shall at any time be found carrying on by any Persons whatsoever, to subvert Your Majesty's Government, or the Protestant Succession; to undermine and overthrow our Holy Church, as by Law establish'd; or to alter or change the truly Apostolical Doctrine and Discipline thereof.

Kensington, June 24.

The following Address of the Borough of Saltaſh, was preſented to the Queen by Alexander Pendarves, Eſq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduc'd by Mr. Vice-Chamberlain. Which Address Her Maſteſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Mr. Pendarves had the Honour to kiſs Her Maſteſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of Your Maſteſty's ancient Dutchy-Borough of Saltaſh, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

*Saltaſh
Dutchy-
Borough.*

THE juſt Senſe we have of Your Maſteſty's Hereditary and Undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of Your Royal Anceſtors, obliges us, Your moſt faithful Subjects, to take this Opportunity of expreſſing our ſincere Zeal for Your Maſteſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd.

We therefore humbly beg Leave to repreſent to Your Maſteſty, our utter Abhorrence of all Antimonarchical and Republican Tenets, which can only tend to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of Your Glorious Reign, and create Heats and Diviſions among Your Subjects; And upon this occaſion, we ſolemnly aſſure Your Maſteſty, that as our preſent Representatives in Parliament have given full Proof of their ſteady Loyalty to Your Maſteſty's Sacred Perſon, and hearty Affection to our Holy Apoſtolic Religion; ſo we will always take care to elect Perſons of unſpotted Honour, Courage, and Fidelity; and, to the utmoſt of our Power, endeavour to ſupport the preſent happy Conſtitution, in Church and State, againſt all Oppoſers whatſoever.

June 28. 1710.

The following Address was preſented to Her Maſteſty, by the Honourable James Johnſton, Eſq; one of the Members of Parliament for the Borough of Ilceſter; he being introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury. Which Address Her Maſteſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

*Ilceſter
Borough.*

WE, Your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Bailiff, Capital Burgeſſes, Miniſter, and other Inhabitants of Your Maſteſty's ancient Borough of Ilceſter, in the County of Somerſet, beg Leave, in this nice Conjunction, to aſſure Your Maſteſty of our ſteady undiſſembled Loyalty and Affection to Your Sacred Perſon, Legal Prerogative, and Hereditary Title to the Crown.

We ſhall be always ready, with all that is dear to us, to ſecond Your Maſteſty's Zeal and Care for the eſtabliſh'd Church, and its whoſome Doctrines, againſt all its open Enemies and pretended Friends; And, in an enſuing Parliament, our Representatives ſhall be ſuch, as, we hope, will manifeſt our Principles to be agreeable to our Profeſſion, by effectually aſſiſting Your Maſteſty in reſtraining Tyranny Abroad, and Antimonarchical Principles at Home.

We beſeech the Almighty, for the Common Good of Mankind, and the Particular Bleſſing of Your own happy People, that Your Maſteſty may both receive the Reward of Your Goodneſs, Piety, and other Princely Vertues, in a long and prosperous Reign over us here, and in endleſs Felicity hereafter. Theſe are, and ever ſhall be, the moſt ſincere Prayers of,

Your Maſteſty's moſt Loyal, Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Parts of Lindsey, in the County of Lincoln, was presented to the Queen by Charles Caldecot, Esq; accompany'd by Sir Tho. Meres, Charles Hall, Gilbert Brown, John Sibthorp, Esqs; and other Gentlemen; introduc'd, at Her Majesty's special Command, by her Grace the Dutches of Ormond; which Address the said Mr. Caldecot read to the Queen: And, as Her Majesty was pleas'd to receive it very graciously; he, and the rest of the Gentlemen with him, had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and others, of the Parts of Lindsey, in the County of Lincoln.

M A D A M,

TH E Principles of Sedition and Rebellion, of Atheism and Irreligion, of late Lindsey so insolently printed, publish'd and defended, to the Dishonour of Almighty Parts. God, the Scandal of the Christian Religion, the Subversion of the Church of England, and the Danger of Your own Crown and Dignity, justly call for the highest Indignation and Repentment from Your Majesty, and us, Your most faithful and loyal Subjects.

After the several publick Assurances Your Majesty has given Your People of the Safety of the Church of England under Your Majesty's happy Government, and the just Reason we have to depend upon Your Royal Word, we cannot but look upon all Persons who presume to disturb the Peace of the Church, and the Quiet of Your Majesty's Reign, by publishing and maintaining Principles of Resistance, so contrary to the Christian Doctrine, so repugnant to the Laws of the Land, and so unnecessary under Your Majesty's Government, to be the most daring of all Your Majesty's Enemies.

As that never to be forgotten Rebellion, which began in Forty One, and was attended with such fatal Consequences to Your Majesty's Royal Family, and these Kingdoms, had its Foundation upon such Maxims, which did, and must of Necessity, draw all Forms of Government, both of Church and State, into Confusion; so we, with all Humility, beg Your Majesty to believe, that all Orders and Degrees of Men whatever, who, at this Time, promote, countenance, or encourage the Principles of Resistance, Schism, and false Doctrine, have in view the utter Destruction of Your Majesty's Hereditary Title and Government; the absolute Defeat of the Protestant Succession in the most illustrious House of Hanover; and, to complete all, the final Dissolution of this our most noble and happy Constitution.

For the Prevention of these black and impending Mischiefs, with the utmost Sincerity of our Hearts, we promise, upon all Occasions, with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dear unto us, to protect and defend Your Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government, against all the close and subtil Contrivances of Your secret Enemies at home, as well as the open Practices and Attempts of those abroad; with the same Chearfulness and Resolution, we will always join with Your Majesty, in the Support and Defence of the Church of England, as by Law establish'd; and, after the most unhappy Demise of Your Majesty, without Issue, with the same Zeal and Constancy, we shall endeavour to deliver our Constitution, entire, to the most Serene House of Hanover.

As the only Hopes of our common Happiness and Welfare, next under God, immediately depend upon the Protection of the Church of England, and the Safety of Your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, we once more presume to give Your Majesty this farther Assurance, that we think we can never do enough for the Preservation of so pure a Church, and so good a Queen.

June 22. 1710.

This day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by William Monson Esq; being introduc'd by the Lord-Chancellor.

Hertford
Borough.

Most Dread Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the principal Inhabitants and Freemen of Your Majesty's Borough of Hertford, being informed, that an Address hath lately been presented to Your Majesty, in the name of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of Your said Borough, do humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that we concur with them, in our hearty Detestation of all Seditious and Rebellious Doctrines and Positions, particularly those which have been so lately, and so justly condemned by Your Majesty's High Court of Parliament.

The Persons truly dangerous to Your Majesty, and the Protestant Succession, are those who traduce the Honour and Justice of the Revolution; those who seditiously suggest the Church to be in Danger under Your Majesty's Administration; those who scandalously Misrepresent the Nation as sunk deeper into Atheism and Infidelity in this time of Your Majesty's Glorious and Pious Reign, than formerly; those who presume to arraign and call in question Your Majesty's most wise and excellent, as well as most successful Administration; and lastly, those who endeavour to support and give Countenance to any Person whatsoever, who has been convicted of these exorbitant Offences.

We cannot, therefore, go so far, as to concur with any Insinuation which seems to be made use of to induce Your Majesty to dissolve the present Parliament, who deserve so well of Your Majesty, and the British Nation.

On the contrary, we persuade ourselves, that whatever Endeavours shall be made use of in choosing Representatives for this Borough, we shall be able to be Represented as we now are, and have always been, except at a time when our Right and Freedom of Election was unjustly invaded.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the West-Riding of the County of York, was presented to Her Majesty by William Lawther, Esq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Bolton.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, within the West-Riding of the County of York.

Most gracious Sovereign!

York
West-
Riding.

OUR true Affection to Your Majesty and Government is such, we could not omit congratulating Your Majesty upon the Glorious Success of Your Forces over the French, in breaking thro' their Lines; tho' they have been ever since the last Campagne in making them as strong as possible, and gathering all their Forces to defend them: Yet no sooner did Your Troops appear, but their whole Army vanished like Smoak; and tho', in all humane probability, we might have expected to have lost Thousands, we scarce lost Five Men; which we cannot attribute to any thing but Your Majesty's Piety and Vertue, which draws a Blessing upon all you undertake; and thro' which, as Moses was to the Israelites, a Wall, to defend them, against the just Judgments of God for their continual Provocations, by his incessant Prayers; so has Your Majesty been to this Nation, or else we had long since been ruined, and harassed, as the rest of our neighbouring Countries are, by having always War in the midst of them; which must have been our Fate, had not the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms, and the humbling of France, been brought to Perfection in Your Reign.

And it shall be our utmost care to defend the Church of England as by Law establish'd, the Protestant Succession, Toleration, and Union, thinking our Lives and Fortunes of no farther use to us, than whilst we are able to support Your Majesty and Government, against all Your Enemies; and then we need not have any Apprehension of the Tyranny of France, nor of those who approve their Religion and Government, whether at Home, or Abroad.

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 4.

PART II.

June 11.

This day the following Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, was humbly presented, and read to Her Majesty by Sir John Stonehouse, Bar. one of the Knights of the Shire, accompany'd by several Gentlemen of that County; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland: Which Address was graciously receiv'd by Her Majesty; and Sir John Stonehouse, and the other Gentlemen with him, had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, humbly beg Leave to join with the rest of Your Dutiful Subjects, County, in Acknowledging the Blessings, and Congratulating the Prosperity of Your Reign.

We likewise take this seasonable Opportunity, of declaring our utter Abhorrence and Detestation of all Antimonarchical Principles, Schismatical Opinions, and Blasphemous Tenets, such as, of late Years, especially, have been so industriously spread by a bold and dangerous Faction, in Defiance to all the Laws of God, and Your Majesty's express Commands to the contrary, signified by Your several Proclamations.

The Happiness which is peculiar to us in this Country, of enjoying Your Majesty's Presence so frequently, inspires us with more than ordinary Zeal for the Preservation of Your Royal Authority, which we freely and voluntarily offer You our Lives and Fortunes to support, against all Persons, of what Denomination soever, either Papists or Republicans, who have pretended to bring in Question Your undoubted Hereditary Title to these Realms. We lay our very Hearts at Your Feet. The Assurances we presume to give You, have neither been disorderly, tumultuously, or clandestinely procur'd, and proceed from no other Motive, but the Sense which all true Christians, justly provok'd, ought to have of Religion, and all good Subjects of Allegiance.

If there is any Spirit of Malignancy yet remaining, any Doctrine of Resistance still subsisting, which neither the Mercy of Your Royal Progenitors, nor Your own exemplary Piety, and unparallel'd Goodness, have been able to overcome, God Almighty must have harden'd the Hearts of such Men, that his Divine Justice may, at last, overtake an incorrigible Race, which the Royal Clemency has so often condescended to spare.

That there may be nothing wanting in us, to disappoint the Hopes of so perverse a Generation, nothing omitted to maintain Your Majesty in Your just Rights, and Royal Prerogative, to preserve and support our excellent Constitution both in Church and State, against all Invasions, or Innovations; to secure and protect the Lives, Liberties, and Properties of our Fellow-Subjects, from all Violence and Oppression; and to confirm and continue the Regal Succession, as our Laws have wisely provided, in the Protestant Line. Whenever Your Majesty shall graciously think fit to call a New Parliament, we will use our utmost Endeavours to be represented by such Members only, as we are well assur'd are of Monarchical Principles, obedient Sons of the Church, and affected, as we ourselves are, with the most dutiful and disinterested Zeal to Your Sacred Person and Government.

Kensington, July 11. 1710.

This Day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty, by Simon Harcourt Esq; introduc'd by the Right Hon. the Earl of Abingdon. Which Address the Queen receiv'd very graciously; and Mr. Harcourt had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks.

May it please Your Majesty,

*Abingdon
Borough.*

WE should be inexcusable, did we not join with the rest of Your faithful and loyal Subjects, in expressing our utmost Zeal for the Support of Your Majesty's Throne, at a time when it is undermin'd by Faction and Seditious Persons, who will not allow the Law, which Your Majesty hath always made the Measure of Your Power, to be the Rule of their Obedience; and do, with equal Boldness and Ingratitude, spread the worst of Principles in the best of Reigns.

We cannot, without Horror, reflect on the mighty Deluge of Blasphemy and Prophaneness which hath, of late Years, broke in upon us, and threaten'd the Subversion of the Christian Faith, that Rock on which this excellent Church (the purest Branch of the Church of Christ) stands, and will, we trust, under the auspicious Protection of Your Majesty and Your Protestant Successors, stand and flourish for ever.

There is nothing so valuable and dear to us, but what we are ready to hazard for the Maintenance of Your Majesty's Hereditary Title, and Royal Prerogative, and for the Security of this Church, by whomsoever, and in what manner soever attack'd and invaded: We look upon the Enemies and Friends of these to be the same, and their Interests to be so closely united, that whosoever shall go about to divide, must intend to destroy them.

Whensoever Your Majesty shall be graciously pleased to exert that lawful Authority, which God and the Constitution have lodg'd in Your Majesty's Hands, we doubt not but 'twill soon appear, that these Enemies of Religion and Monarchy are as inconsiderable for their Number and Interest, as they are detestable for their Principles and Practices.

For ourselves, we do solemnly promise, that whenever Your Majesty shall think fit to call a New Parliament, we will send up such a Representative, as shall, upon all Occasions, act with a just Regard to the Rights and Liberties of his Fellow-Subjects, a sincere Zeal for the Church of England, and an unsuspected Fidelity to Your Majesty.

May God Almighty bless Your Majesty with Success in subduing all the Enemies of our Peace and Prosperity, whether Domestick or Foreign, and grant Your Majesty a long and happy Reign over us.

Kensington, July 12.

This Day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by R. Creswell, Jun. Esq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury. Which was receiv'd very graciously, and Mr. Creswell had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, and Burgeses of the Corporation of Bridgnorth, in the County of Salop.

Bridgnorth Corporation.

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, and Burgeses of the Corporation of Bridgnorth, aforesaid, hearing that our County has been misrepresented as disaffected to Your Government, do take this Opportunity humbly to assure Your Majesty, that we will stand by Your Majesty's Person, Prerogative, and Government, Your Hereditary Title to the Throne, the Church of England, and Protestant Succession as by Law establish'd, against all Your Enemies abroad and at home; and will do our utmost Endeavour, when Your Majesty shall be pleased to call a New Parliament, to elect such Members as are Men of Monarchical Principles, Members of the Church of England, and Maintainers of her sound and pure Doctrines, and Abhorrors of all Seditious, Republican, and Factious Tenets, that place Government in the People, and invade the Authority of the Almighty, by whom only Kings and Queens reign.

May Your Majesty's Reign be prosperous, as it has been already in a wonderful manner; may Your End be late and peaceable, and crown'd with a Glorious and Immortal Reward, is the Prayer of,

Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

July

July 11.

Yesterday, the following Address was presented to Her Majesty, by the Right Honourable the Lord Bruce. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Borough of Ludgershall.

WE, Your Majesty's most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Bailiff, Voters, and Ludgershall Freeholders of Your ancient Borough of Ludgershall, in the County of Wilts. Borough. with the most profound Humility, crave Leave, among the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, to congratulate Your Majesty upon the happy Opening of this Campaign, the passing the French Lines, and the Reduction of Doway; such glorious Instances of Success, as must convince the ambitious Monarch, that nothing but Peace can stop the Growth of Your spreading Lawrels.

We heartily wish there was no occasion, at this time, of declaring our utter Detestation and Abhorrence of all Levelling and Antimonarchical Doctrines; Doctrines which once overturn'd the best Constitution in the World, and made our Island a Field of Blood; Doctrines first started by the Church of Rome, and since, to our unspeakable Grief and Concern, reviv'd, and avowedly taught, by crafty and designing Men; the deform'd Off-spring of that Parent, which would have Kings to be their Vassals, and God's Vicegerents to be their Slaves.

That Your Majesty may long and happily Reign, over a willing, peaceable, and obedient People, and late, but assuredly, change this corruptible for an incorruptible Crown; and then, that the Scepter of this Kingdom, to the great Disappointment of our False Brethren, may be faithfully transmitted to the illustrious House of Hanover, are, and shall be the constant Prayers of

Your Majesty's most Loyal, Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty from the Town and Port of Hyth, one of Her Majesty's Cinque Ports, by Julius Deeds, Mayor of the said Corporation; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dorset and Middlesex, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and Constable of Dover Castle.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, with the rest of the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hyth, in the County of Kent, one of Your Majesty's Cinque Ports.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, in the number of those Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, who Con- Hyth Port. gratulate the further Progress of Your Majesty's Arms, upon the Success of which, and a steady pursuit of Revolution Principles, both our present Happiness and Hopes of a safe and lasting Peace, so much depend, do humbly crave Leave to repeat our due and grateful Acknowledgments to Heaven, and Your Majesty, for the many Blessings enjoy'd under Your most Auspicious Reign, founded and established on the late no less Divine, than Providential Revolution, which so wonderfully preserv'd the Civil State, and happily establish'd Church of England, and to which Your Majesty has shewn Yourself a Nursing Mother so very Beneficent and Tender, that Your Royal Bounty and Goodness has not been circumscribed within any Distinguished Party, or by the Time present, but has variously extended itself to the Good and Loyal of one and another Denomination; as also for the Peace and Happiness of late Posterity, more particularly and so pathetically declared from the Throne, at the satisfactory Close of the last Sessions of Parliament; and may that Your Satisfaction, together with many others, have no untimely Interruption, nor Your Majesty be frustrated in Your most just and earnest Hope of becoming the happy Instrument of that yet more desirable Union of the Hearts of all Your People in the Bond of mutual Affection, that so there may remain no other Contention among us, but who shall exceed the other, in contributing to advance our present Happiness, and secure the Protestant Succession. And let all the People say, Amen.

St. James's,

St. James's, July 10. 1710.

This day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by Robie Sherwin, Esq; introduc'd by the most Honourable the Marquis of Dorchester.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town and County of Nottingham, in the Common-Hall assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

Nottingham
Town and
County.

WHen we look back upon the many Blessings of your Majesty's most gracious Government, the Peace, Plenty, Liberty and Tranquility of your Majesty's Subjects, while the greatest part of the World feel the Miseries of War and Tyranny, with their necessary Consequences, Poverty and Famine; it fills us with Astonishment, that any Party of Men amongst us should be industrious to rob themselves of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's wise and just Administration.

It is evident to us, that such Men are carrying on an Interest separate from that of your Majesty's, and the Good of their Country; and it is too apparent they aim at embroiling us in private and civil Dissentions, since they every where join with, and are supported by, Papists, Nonjurors, and the perjured Favourers of your Majesty's Enemies.

From this proceeds all their Pretensions of the Church's Danger; their Breaches upon the Toleration; their Insulting your Majesty's peaceable Subjects; their Reflecting upon the Revolution; and their Reproaching your Majesty's wise and mild Administration, by the faithful and vigilant Assistance of able Counsellors, and a well-chosen Ministry, which we have hitherto felt the good Effects of.

But above all, it is the Wonder and Abhorrence of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, to see the same People flying in the Face of the Representatives of their Country, your Majesty's faithful Commons, insinuating their Desires of having them dismissed, and assuming a Right of reproaching their Actions, at the same time that your Majesty was graciously pleased to thank them for their vigorous Assistance to, and Concurrence with, your Majesty, in carrying on the most just and necessary War, to the infinite Joy of your Majesty's good Subjects, and to express your Majesty's Satisfaction in all their Proceedings.

These things being consider'd, obliged us to renew to your Majesty, the Assurance of our Duty and Loyalty, and to express, with all possible Humility, our utmost Resolution of serving and defending your Majesty's Person and Government, upon all Occasions, against all your Majesty's private and open Enemies; and in particular, by continuing to choose the like faithful Representatives, as shall endeavour to merit the same Thanks, and the like Expressions of Satisfaction from your Majesty, as our present Representatives have done.

May God Almighty continue to bless your Royal Majesty with Success abroad, until your Majesty has procured a most glorious and lasting Peace to these Kingdoms, and to your Majesty's Allies; that your Majesty may be the glorious Instrument of establishing the Protestant Religion, and our Laws and Liberties; and by your Majesty's mild Administration, may unite the Hearts of your Majesty's Subjects, both to your Majesty and to one another, that we may no longer deprive ourselves of the Blessings of your Majesty's just and merciful Government. This is the Prayer, and ever shall be the constant Endeavour of us,

Your Majesty's most Faithful, and most Dutiful Subjects.

To which we have put our Common-Seal, this 5th of July, 1710.

---

Note. This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 s. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 5.

PART II.

Kensington, July 29.

This Day, the following Address from the Grand-Jury of the County of Southampton, at the Assizes begun July 18. in the Castle of Winchester, was presented to Her Majesty, by the High-Sheriff, and several of the Grand-Jury, unanimously; introduc'd by the Duke of Beaufort. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss the Queen's Hand.

Most gracious Sovereign!

THE Great and Glorious Successes which have attended Your Majesty's Arms, Southampton and those of Your Allies, particularly in reducing the strong and important Southampton Fortress of Douay, do fill our Hearts with Joy: That Your Majesty may still triumph, and that the Unanimity and Dutiful Allegiance of Your Subjects, may make You as happy at Home, as You are victorious Abroad, is what we most earnestly and daily pray for. Therefore, it is with the greatest Concern, that we observe the restless Endeavours of some Men to persuade the World; that any other Principles than those which are maintain'd by the Laws, and establish'd Church of England, can avail to the Security of Your Royal Person and Government; or that ever those Maxims which brought the Blessed Martyr to the Block, can support his Progeny on the Throne.

We can bless God for all the Advantages of the late happy Revolution, without embracing all the Consequences some Men draw from it: Our Fear of Popery shall never betray us into Fanaticism, nor lessen our Aversion to those Tenets which seem to be industriously advanc'd rather to prepare Men for another Revolution, than to justify the former. We therefore beg Leave, with all Humility, to represent to Your Majesty our just and utter Abhorrence of those Traiterous and Damnable Positions, which vest the Supreme Authority in the People, and give them a Right of Resistance, whensoever they shall think fit to charge their Governours with Male-Administration. This we express with the greater Zeal, being well assur'd, that if none of Your Subjects learn to resist, the Pretender can never prevail, nor the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of HANOVER ever be defeated.

And since Your Majesty's Title is deriv'd as well by Lineal Descent as Acts of Settlement, we think ourselves in Duty bound to acknowledge Your Hereditary Right to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, against all Papists and Republicans who alone dare question or oppose it.

May God long preserve Your Majesty to be a Support and Ornament to this Church and Nation; and to this end, we promise in our several Stations to punish and discountenance all Atheism, Blasphemy, and Prophaneness, all Schism and Faction, which we conceive to be no ways inconsistent with that Regard due to Consciences truly scrupulous, according to the Act of Indulgence, which we desire they may enjoy in the full Limits the Law hath prescribed.

And when Your Majesty, of Your great Wisdom, shall think fit to call a new Parliament, we doubt not to choose such Representatives as shall do their utmost to support the Prerogative of the Crown, the Church of England as by Law establish'd, and the Welfare of all Your People.

Kensington, July 21.

The following Address from the County of Hertford, was presented to Her Majesty by Ralph Freeman, jun. and Thomas Halsey, Esqs; the Two Representatives of the said County, and William Gore, Esq; introduc'd by the Right Hon. the Earl of Salisbury: Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and they had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions for the County of Hertford, July 10. 1710.

Hertford
County.

Most-Rightful Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, have, with great Satisfaction, observ'd the many loyal Addresses, declaring their firm and inviolable Duty and Affection to your Majesty, the Church of England, and the Protestant Succession, in Opposition to, and Abhorrence of all Jesuitical, Atheistical, and Schismatical Books and Principles, of late so boldly publish'd and maintain'd, and industriously dispers'd among us: Which Addresses having been graciously receiv'd by your Majesty; we, likewise, heartily joining with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects in so grateful and necessary Declarations, do presume humbly to give your Majesty the same Assurances of our inviolable Duty to your sacred Person, of our sincere Affection to the Church of England, and of our firm Resolution to maintain the Protestant Succession, against all Opposers both at home and abroad.

And as your Majesty has often, from the Throne, been pleas'd graciously to recommend Union among all your Subjects, we do assure your Majesty of our sincere Endeavours to promote the same; and do hope, by our tender Regard to all our Fellow-Subjects that are under the Misfortune of dissenting from us, either to reconcile 'em to our Establishment, or to create in 'em so much Modesty, as to distinguish between a kind Indulgence, and a legal Establishment.

We also congratulate your Majesty upon the many and wonderful Successes it has pleas'd God to bestow on your Arms, and those of your Allies; and we beg the Continuance of his Providence to make your Reign farther Glorious, and your Majesty his Instrument in establishing a safe and honourable Peace to Europe, and defending this Church and Nation against all its open and secret Enemies; and that your Majesty may long live an Ornament and Security to both, are the constant and hearty Prayers of

Your Majesty's most devoted and obedient Subjects.

Kensington, July 16. 1710.

This day the following Address from the Borough of Maldon, in the County of Essex, was presented to Her Majesty at Kensington, by Sir Richard Child, Bar. one of their Representatives; and John Comyns, Esq; Serjeant at Law, their Recorder; introduc'd by the Right Hon. Richard Earl Rivers, Lord-Lieutenant of that County; which was receiv'd very graciously, and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Maldon, in the County of Essex.

Maldon
Borough.

M A D A M,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, readily embrace all Occasions to express our just Sense of the many Blessings your People enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign; wherein we are at a Loss what most to admire; your own bright and exemplary Piety to adorn; or, your Care to preserve the Church of England as establish'd by Law: The glorious Conduct and Success of your Arms; the wise Choice or prudent Regulation of your Ministry: All excite our Wonder and Esteem, all engage our Affection and Duty to a Princess invested with all the Right which can in any wise entitle to the Sovereignty over us. Permit us, then, to disclaim the Principles and Practices of those Men, who advance Republican Schemes and Positions; who spread the Notion of an Hereditary Right in one whom our Laws disown to have a Being; and in your easy and indulgent Reign, revive the Doctrines of Resisting and Deposing Kings, or rendring them accountable to the People. Permit us, at your Royal Feet, to renew the Profession of our steady and inviolable Loyalty, who, as bound by the strongest Obligations of Law and Religion, will constantly maintain a firm Allegiance to your Majesty our Rightful Sovereign, reverence your sacred Person, and in our Stations endeavour unalterably to preserve the happy Constitution of your Government in Church and State, and that Succession in the Protestant Line establish'd by Law.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helston, in the County of Cornwall, assembled at the Guild-Hall of the said Borough, the 21st of June, 1710.

Most gracious Sovereign,

AS we are truly sensible of the inestimable Blessings the Nation in general, as Helston well as this your ancient and loyal Corporation, (wherein is not one Dissenter Borough: from the establish'd Church of England) in particular, enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign; so we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will (as in Duty bound) at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, stand by, and support your Sacred Person and Prerogative, the Protestant Succession, and the Church of England as by Law establish'd, against all Popish, Schismatical, and Fanatical Doctrines, of resisting Lawful Princes; which we detest and abhor, as impious, dangerous and destructive to our happy Constitution and Government.

That the Residue of your Majesty's Reign over us may have a Series of Successes over all your Enemies, both at home and abroad, and after a very long and happy Reign here, may your Majesty become a glorious Subject to the King of Kings, whom you endeavour to imitate, and by whom you now reign, is and shall be the constant Prayer of,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Kensington, July 27.

The following Address was this day presented to Her Majesty by Arthur Moore and William Cotesworth, Esquires, Members of Parliament for the Borough of Great-Grimesby; being introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of the Household; which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Great-Grimesby, in the County of Lincoln.

May it please Your Majesty,

With all Duty and Affection, we join with our Fellow-Subjects, in representing to your Sacred Majesty, the Sense we have of those wicked and irreligious Positions that have been lately publish'd, to the Dishonour of God, Great-Grimesby the Hazard of the Quiet of your Majesty's Reign, and of the Church of England as by Law establish'd, of which Church we profess ourselves faithful Members. Borough.

When Moderation was promoted, as a Means to avoid Distinctions amongst your Majesty's Subjects, to preserve Peace at home, and consequently the better to carry on the War abroad, we heartily join'd therein; but it was with Astonishment we soon beheld some of those Pretenders to Moderation unmask themselves, and setting up the most dangerous of Distinctions, That no Man was to be accounted Honest, Faithful, or Just, but such who were of Principles which (being examin'd) appear to be repugnant to Monarchy, contradictory to the Rules of Obedience laid down in the holy Scriptures, and to the Doctrines and Authorities of the establish'd Church; the propagating of which Schismatical and Antimonarchical Principles, can admit of no other Construction, than when your Majesty's Administration shall be no longer pleasing or profitable to such Men, they will be ready for any other Government that will more gratifie their Interest and Ambition.

These Insults on Religion and Government, call on your Majesty's Faithful Subjects to renew their Assurances, (as we unfeignedly do) That we will stand by your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, in Support of your Majesty's undoubted Hereditary Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, maintain the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, and the Church of England as by Law establish'd; and that in the ensuing Parliament, we will elect such Representatives, as we are assur'd will use their utmost Endeavours to these Ends; and also concur in giving such Supplies, and in making such Provisions for the Support and Credit of your Government, that your Majesty (in Imitation of your Royal Ancestors) may have Dependance ONLY upon your Parliament.

Kensington,

Kensington, July 18. 1710.

This day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. Henry Lord Newport, one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Salop, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Grand-Jury, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at Salop, for the said County, the 11th day of July, 1710.

Most gracious Sovereign!

Salop
County.

WE crave Leave, in all Humility, to address your Throne, not with any Misrepresentations of our Fellow-Subjects, nor yet presuming to busy ourselves in Matters improper for us, and which your Majesty has been graciously pleas'd to declare to be of a very high Nature, reviv'd with ill Intention, and tending to foment our unhappy Divisions; but with an unfeigned Zeal for the Safety of your Sacred Person, and the Honour of your Government; for the Security of the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, as settled by Act of Parliament; for the Prosperity of the Church of England as by Law establish'd, and for the ancient undoubted Prerogative of your Crown.

We have always demeaned ourselves conformably to these Professions, and will, for the future, study to maintain the same Character.

And for these Reasons, we can by no means join in any Insinuations of the Danger of the Church of England, which we steadfastly believe, by the Blessing of God, to be in perfect Safety and Prosperity under your Majesty's happy Administration. We utterly disclaim all Endeavours to lessen and disparage the Conduct of your Ministry, which has so greatly advanced the Honour of your Reign, and the Glory of your Kingdom, and which, after a tedious and expensive War, to which we have cheerfully contributed our Shares, hath brought us in View of a safe and lasting Peace; and we must for ever disapprove of all Measures which may have been taken by others, with design to create a Disesteem of the present Parliament. We are fully persuaded, that a Submission to the Supreme Power is our Duty as Subjects, and our Interest as we are hearty Well-wishers to the Government, under which we live. 'Tis necessary, even for the Support of your Royal Authority, and the Preservation of our happy Constitution.

But we think ourselves obliged to lay hold on this Opportunity, to express our entire Satisfaction in those late Proceedings, by which the Honour and Justice of the late happy Revolution, the Memory of our glorious Deliverer, your Majesty's undoubted Title to the Throne of your Ancestors, and the Settlement of the Crown in the Protestant Line, appear to us to have been so justly and amply asserted.

Madam, we presume not to touch on those important Matters, whereon your Princely Wisdom is so constantly employ'd for the Good of your People, and least of all, on that which concerns the continuing or dissolving your Parliament; this is that inseparable Prerogative of your Crown, which we, for our parts, will always defend, and must think, ought to be maintained inviolably. And we comfort ourselves with the Assurance, that that Power will be always exercised by your Sacred Majesty, with the most tender and wise Regard to the Welfare of your People, the Honour of your Government, and for the Safety and Liberties of Europe. And we crave Leave to assure your Majesty, that whensoever your Royal Command shall call us to the Election of a new Parliament, we will endeavour to choose, and we doubt not but we shall be Represented, as we now are, by Persons steady and zealous for the Honour and Service of your Majesty, and your Government, and the Church of England as by Law establish'd, and just and faithful to the Liberties of their Country.

---

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphet near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 6.

PART II.

Kensington, July 30.

This day the following Address was presented and read to Her Majesty, by Sir Thomas Style, Bar. High-Sheriff for the County of Kent, attended by several of the Grand-Jury, who were introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort: Which Address was receiv'd very graciously by Her Majesty, and all the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff and Grand-Jury of the County of Kent, at the Assizes held at Maidstone, the 25th of July, 1710.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE have long waited for this Opportunity of Professing our Duty to Kent Your Majesty, and our Detestation of those Principles and Practices, by which a Cabal of wicked Men once accomplish'd the Destruction of this best constituted Church and Government.

And it is with Grief we now observe to Your Majesty, that whilst Your Loyal Subjects are maintaining Your Hereditary Right, and asserting the Doctrine of Obedience taught by our Church, they are calumniated with the Names of Papists and Jacobites; and that they, who have always manifested their Zeal for our Establish'd Religion, their Loyalty to Your Majesty, their Tenderneſs to scrupulous Conſciences, their Regard to the Protestant Succession, and the Liberties of the People, are branded with the Name of Party or Faction; such Slanders as these can only proceed from restless Spirits, who are disquieting the Minds of Your Loyal Subjects, with Notions destructive of all Forms of Government; and whose constant Practice it is, to impose on Your People, That Zeal for our Religion is Popery; Obedience to Your Majesty Turkish Slavery; and a strict Observance of their Oaths, at best, but a Perjur'd Friendship to Your Majesty's Enemies.

When this is done in the Reign of the most Indulgent and Religious Queen, that ever blessed any Nation, we cannot but fear it is intended to disturb this Happy Government, and to take from us our Religion and Liberties, which, by Your Majesty's Wisdom and Care have been always preserved, and will, we doubt not, be deliver'd down inviolate to Your Protestant Successors, in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

May Your Majesty steadily pursue those Measures You have so wisely taken, for the Preservation of our Holy Religion, the Support of Your Crown and Dignity, and the Welfare of all Your People; and may Almighty God prosper Your Councils, and bless Your Arms, with a continu'd Glorious Success, that we, and all Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects, may enjoy the Blessing of a Lasting and Honourable Peace, which we fear such Artifices have caused our Enemies to delay. These are the true Sentiments and hearty Prayers of

Your Majesty's Dutiful Subjects,

N. B. That the Grand-Jury were some of the most considerable Gentlemen of the County, consisting of 3 Barons, 1 Knight, and 21 Gentlemen, who unanimously agreed to, and signed the said Address.

Kensington, July 29. 1710.

This Day was presented to Her Majesty the following Address, from the Archdeacon and Clergy of the County of Stafford, by the Reverend Dr. Ryves, and the Reverend Mr. Taylor, &c. introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and the Doctor, and the rest of the Gentlemen had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the County of Stafford, within the Diocese of Litchfield and Coventry.

May it please Your Majesty,

Stafford
Clergy.

When we consider'd the many Strange and Unreasonable Methods, which the most implacable Enemies of Your Majesty's Government are continually making use of, in order to undermine it, particularly those Two notoriously False, tho' so much receiv'd Notions, that Your Majesty's Title to the Throne of Your Ancestors, is built upon the People; and the Doctrine of Resistance; the former so much a Self-Contradiction, and the latter so apparently opposite to the written Word of God, we could no longer forbear Assembling ourselves together, on purpose, on this Occasion, that we might assure Your Majesty, that we do, from our Hearts, believe, and will, to our utmost Power, defend and maintain Your Majesty's undoubted Hereditary Right to the Throne, against all Pretences, as well as Pretenders, whatsoever; and that we do utterly detest and abhor that scandalous Doctrine of Resistance, on any Account whatsoever. And this we do assure Your Majesty, most heartily and sincerely, without any Reserve or Distinction in this Matter, that may hereafter be found out, when Men think they need it. And we shall always think it our necessary Duty to teach our People what we believe ourselves.

May God protect Your Majesty from all Your Enemies either at Home or Abroad; and when it shall please that God, to whom alone You are accountable, to Deprive us of so great a Blessing, and Reward You with an Everlasting Crown, it is our most hearty Desire, and we do most devoutly pray, that Your Temporal one may descend to the Illustrious House of Hanover, to the latest Posterity.

Kensington, Aug. 1.

This Day, the following Address of the High-Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, met at the Assizes held for the said County, at Ailesbury, on the 18th Day of July last, and also of the Clergy of the said County, was presented to Her Majesty by Simon Harcourt, Esq; Foreman of the said Grand-Jury, and Thomas Chapman, Esq; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Cheyne. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and they had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, the Justices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders, met together at the Assizes holden for the County of Bucks, at Ailesbury, in the said County, on the 18th Day of July, 1710. and also of the Clergy of the said County.

Bucks
County.

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do, with the utmost Acknowledgments to Your Majesty, congratulate the Glorious Successes of Your Arms, in Conjunction with those of Your Allies, and, in great Humility, return You our unfeign'd Thanks for Your singular Zeal, at all Times, for the Maintenance of the Apostolical Doctrines of the Episcopal Establish'd Church of this Kingdom, and for the Happiness and Well-being of Your People.

And we do assure Your Majesty, that we are, and always will be ready to sacrifice all that is most dear to us for the Defence of Your Sacred Person, against the Pretender abroad, and all his Adherents, and also for the Defence of that Church, and the Protestant Succession, against all Republicans and Factionous Persons whatsoever, whose Principles of Resistance so boldly of late declar'd, and so dangerous to Your Majesty's Government, we entertain a just Abhorrence of.

And we do farther assure Your Majesty, That we shall, with the greatest Industry, endeavour to suppress all Antimonarchical and Blasphemous Tenets, whereby Your unthinking and undiscerning Subjects may have such wicked Notions infus'd into 'em, as may blindly lead 'em into the same dangerous Paths of those egregious Miscreants in Forty One, where they may be instructed to undermine and subvert our present Excellent Constitution both in Church and State, and disturb the Serenity of Your glorious Reign.

And we do declare to Your Majesty, that we will assert and support Your Hereditary Title to the Crown of these Realms, have a tender Regard to the Rights and Liberties of our Fellow-Subjects, and concur with Your Majesty in such Measures as may most conduce to the Procuring an honourable and lasting Peace to Europe.

Kensington,

Kensington, Aug. 6. 1710.

This day the following Address of the Borough of Launceston, was presented to the Queen by the Right Honourable the Lord Hyde and William Cary, Esq; their Representatives, and the Honourable George Granville, Esq; their Recorder; introduc'd by the Right Honourable Thomas Coke, Esq; Vice-Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and they had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerks, Common-Council, Free Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunheved, alias Launceston, in the County of Cornwall.

Most gracious Sovereign!

THE bare-fac'd Insults that have of late been publicly offer'd our ancient Con-*Launceston*stitution in Church and State, the industrious Maintaining and Propagating Borough. Principles that destroy our Common Christianity, sap the Foundation of all Government, and render the Fate of the best and greatest of Princes subject to the Caprices of the vilest and meanest of the People, cannot but raise a just Indignation in the Breast of all Your Majesty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, and make them join their honest Endeavours, in their several Stations, to put a Stand to such a growing Mischief.

Permit us therefore, Most Dread Sovereign, Your Ancient and Loyal Borough of Launceston, thus, publicly, to declare our utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of those, and all such Antichristian, Antimonarchical, Republican, and Factious Principles; and to render Your Sacred Majesty our Lives and Fortunes, for the Support of Your Majesty's Hereditary Right, our Ancient Constitution, and the Protestant Succession as by Law establish'd, against all Enemies whatsoever.

And as it hath been the Honour and Happiness of our Borough, long to be represented by Two Gentlemen of unspotted Loyalty, and unbias'd Zeal for our Church and Government, so we do assure Your Majesty, That when You please to call a New Parliament, we shall, by our electing them, or, in case they be taken from us, by our choosing others of the like fix'd and steady Principles, demonstrate to the World our sincere Affections for Monarchy and the Church.

That Your Majesty may long enjoy the Imperial Crown of these Realms; that having at last reduc'd the exorbitant Power of France, and restor'd Peace and Liberty to Europe, Your Majesty may be the happy Instrument of healing all our Breaches, and composing all our Domestick Divisions, are the unfeign'd Prayers of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Kensington, July 20. 1710.

This Day the following Address from the Isle of Ely, was presented to Her Majesty by David Rowlands, Esq; accompanied by Mr. Thomas Rowlands, his Son, with George Mayfield, and Nicolas Malabar, Esq; Justices of the Peace for the Isle of Ely; being introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Orford.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Grand-Jury, Chief Constables, Freeholders, and substantial Inhabitants of the Isle of Ely, assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace holden for the Isle of Ely, at Wisbich, the 11th Day of July, 1710. and from thence adjourn'd to Ely the 15th Day of the said Month.

MADAM,

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, take this Opportunity to Congratulate Your Isle of Ely. Majesty, upon the Welcome News of the taking of that strong and important Town of Doway; not doubting, but Your Majesty's glorious Troops, in conjunction with those of Your Allies, under the Conduct of Your great General the Duke of Marlborough, will soon restore to us a firm and well-grounded Peace, and make the haughty Monarch very sensible of the many Injuries he has done to all his Neighbours.

We cannot, but with deep concern take notice, how some ill-designing Persons industriously labour to keep up odious Distinctions and Divisions amongst Your People, contrary to Your Majesty's particular Direction in Your last most Gracious Speech to Your Parliament, which was to study to be Quiet, and mind their own Business. And we also believe it a very unwarrantable Presumption in them, to call in Question the Conduct of not only the Greatest, but the Best of Princes, sparing not to make severe Reflections upon every Occasion, on the Proceedings of the Parliament, and the Management of Your most Prudent and Able Ministry, which Your Majesty has so happily made Choice of.

May Your Majesty's Reign continue Long and Prosperous; Your and Our Enemies, both to Church and State, be disappointed; May they, whose Duty and Office it is, preach and practise Peace; May the Church of England, as by Law established, for ever Flourish, and the Gates of Hell never prevail against it; May the Protestant Succession be firmly Supported, the Toleration kept Inviolable, and the Adherents and the Abettors of the Pretender, brought to Shame; is the Zealous, and Fervent Prayer of,

Your Majesty's Loyal, and Dutiful Subjects.

Kensington;

July 30. 1710.

The following Address was this day presented to Her Majesty by Sir Thomas Palmer, Bar. and David Polhill, Esq; Knights of the Shire for the County of Kent, attended by some of the most considerable Gentlemen of the said County; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dorset and Middlesex.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Kent, assembled at the Assizes held at Maidstone, the 25th of July, 1710.

Most gracious Sovereign!

Kent
County.

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Majesty, upon the early and continued Successes of this Glorious Campaign: And, at the same time, most gratefully to acknowledge the many Blessings we daily enjoy, under Your Majesty's happy Administration. And it is with the utmost Detestation we reflect upon those turbulent Spirits, those Fomenters of Sedition, who, even in Your Majesty's pious and exemplary Reign, would falsely insinuate, that the Church, the most sacred Part of our Constitution, is in danger, notwithstanding the unparallel'd Victories with which God has blessed Your Majesty's Arms Abroad, under Your most Faithful and most Successful General; and the wise Administration of Affairs at Home, under a most Prudent and Well-chosen Ministry.

But such is the Ingratitude of these Wicked and Designing Men; such their Inveteracy to the Happy Revolution; and such their Inconsistency; that though at present they think it for their Purpose seemingly to Approve Your Majesty's being upon the Throne, yet they stick not openly to Revile and Traduce, as Odious and Unjustifiable, the Necessary Means that were us'd in bringing about the Happy Event.

But may that Providence, which has so peculiarly attended Your Majesty throughout the whole Course of Your Reign, still continue to Protect and Defend the Best of Queens.

And may our Holy and Apostolical Church ever be secured against all her Enemies, of what Nature soever, whether Popish or Fanatical; but more particularly, against those Vipers in her very Bosom, who instil Groundless Fears, and Prophane her Sacred Name, in using it only as a Cloak to Designs they do not as yet think proper openly to Avow.

And as we do solemnly assure Your Majesty, That we are ready with our Lives and Fortunes, to Maintain Your Majesty's undoubted Title to the Crown, and to Defend the Church of England as establish'd by Law; So we do not think it altogether unnecessary, in this Prevaricating Age, to declare, That we mean that Title which is founded on the Happy Revolution, and confirm'd by the indisputable Authority of Parliament; And by the Church, we mean no other, but our Holy Episcopal Protestant Church of England, establish'd by the Laws at the Reformation.

And we likewise beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, That when this Parliament (the Memory of which must be ever dear to all who wish well to their Country) has a Determination, we shall do our utmost still to be Represented by such as are zealously Affected to Your Majesty's Person and Government, sincere Promoters of the common Interest, and such who shall endeavour to enable Your Majesty effectually to secure the Protestant Succession (for the Good of our Posterity) against the Attempts of Your Majesty's avowed Enemies Abroad, and from the more dangerous Perils of False and Seditious Brethren at Home.

---

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 s. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 7.

PART II.

Kensington, Aug. 11.

This day, the following Address was presented and read to Her Majesty, by Robert Coker, Esq; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulet. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and Mr. Coker had the Honour to kiss Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeffes, Governour, Assistants, Common Council, and other Free Inhabitants within the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset, at a General Meeting held at the Guildhall there, the First Day of August, in the Ninth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, over Great Britain, &c.

Most gracious Sovereign!

WE, Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, humbly beg Leave Dorchester to assure Your Sacred Majesty, that no Defect of Loyalty, no Want Borough: of Affection or Zeal for Your Royal Person and Government, hath kept us thus long Silent, whilst our Fellow-Subjects, to their own Honour, and to our Joy, have been daily giving Your Majesty the most Solemn Pledges of their Fidelity. But we have stood amazed and confounded at the Daring Insolence and the Base Ingratitude of a Set of Men, who, notwithstanding they continually feel, and flourish under the benign Influence of the Mildest of Governments; and the Best of Princes, make it yet their Study, and their Business, to propagate the most pernicious and damnable Doctrines of Sedition and Rebellion, to corrupt and debauch the Minds of Your Majesty's Subjects with lewd Antimonarchical Notions; and by teaching them New Measures of Obedience, to prepare and prompt them to Disobedience. But, as we hope to see these Sons of Anarchy defeated in their Projects, and confounded in their Devices; so we must no longer forbear to give Your Majesty our most Religious Assurances, that we, not only from our Souls, detest and abhor all Traiterous Positions, all Factions and Republican Principles, which tend directly to Confusion, and to endanger the future Peace and Stability of Your Throne, but also, that we will, at all Times, and upon all Occasions, stand by, and support Your Royal Person, vindicate your Hereditary Title, and defend the Essential Rights and Prerogatives of Your Imperial Crown. These, with our Excellent Church, so happily establish'd amongst us, we cannot but esteem our choicest and dearest Blessings: And, therefore, as we shall always concert, in our several Capacities, the most proper and honourable Measures to preserve them; so we shall, in an especial manner, take care to be represented in future Parliaments, by such as are Eminent for their Loyalty to Your Majesty, and conspicuous for their Zeal to our Holy Church. Nor shall we cease to beseech and implore the King of Kings, whose Vicegerent You are, that, after Your Majesty's late, very late Resignation of the Throne of Your Ancestors, and Your long and Princely Patronage of our Pure Church, there may never be wanting One of the Royal Race, a Protestant of Your Majesty's own Principles, to wear the One, and defend the Other; that so, both our Church and Monarchy may for ever flourish, and for ever continue, to support and establish each other, to the Grief and Disappointment of all that hate them, to the Conversion of those that but moderately affect them, and to the Joy of such as sincerely love them.

Aug. 11. 1710.

This day, the following Address from the County of Norfolk, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Woodhouse and Sir Jacob Astley, Baronets, accompany'd by Sir Edm. Bacon, Baronet, and other Gentlemen of the said County; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and all the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentlemen, at the Assizes holden at the Castle of Norwich, for the County of Norfolk, the 31st of July, 1710.

Dread Sovereign!

*Norfolk
County.*

After the numerous Throngs of Addressers to Your Majesty, whom some Proceedings of late have awaken'd to a more than Common Concern for Your Sacred Person and Government, permit us humbly to present ourselves before You, with a Tender of our Hands and Hearts, which we assure Your Majesty shall, on all Occasions, be ready to vindicate and maintain Your just Prerogative against all open and secret Enemies whatsoever; Your Majesty's Hereditary Title to the Throne of Your Ancestors, being so insolently attack'd by profess'd Republicans and Jacobites, the One directly aiming at the Downfall of the Monarchy, the Other at setting up the Pretender, and both at the utter Subversion of our present happy Constitution, we think ourselves oblig'd, at all times, to assert it, together with the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

Nor can we express our Concern, that any of Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects should imagin the Publick Credit of this Nation can be supported by one Party of Men only; an Insinuation that may well give Encouragement to the Enemy Abroad, and can serve at Home but as a Screen to those whom Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, may think proper to displace.

Your Majesty's known Zeal for the truly Primitive and Apostolical Church of England, our only Bulwark against Popery; and the Honour of the Reformation gives a glorious Prospect of its Flourishing every day more and more under Your Most wise and pious Administration; a Happiness so great to all Your truly Faithful and Obedient Subjects, as affords no Room for any other Wish, Than that Your Majesty may long reign over us, which is the sincere and hearty Prayer of, Madam,

Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Kensington, Aug. 11.

This day the following Address from the Borough of Great Marlow, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir James Etheridge, one of their Representatives in Parliament; the Reverend Mr. Millicamp, and Mr. George Bruere; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Address she receiv'd very graciously, and the Gentlemen had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Constables, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks.

May it please Your Majesty,

*Great Mar-
low Bo-
rough.*

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, and Faithful Sons of the entirely English Church, presume, in all Humility, to approach the Throne, where sits (immediately under God) the Cause of all our Blessings; congratulating the Success of Your Majesty's Arms, that yearly make Cities fall, and Fleets and Armies fly: But we can't but wonder, that whilst we are blest with such a Bright Example of Virtue, Vice should make such bold, such publick Flights; and that under the best of Protestant Reigns, that Popish Maxim of Resistance should be introduc'd (even by those whose constant Cry it is, The Romans will come in, and take away our Place and Nation) which is forbid by our Statute-Book, as well as our Bible.

We beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that we shall practise no Resistance, but against Your Foes, of what Denomination soever; particularly those, who deny Your Hereditary Right, propagate Vicious and Antimonarchical Principles, and would crush the Crown, and mar the Mitre: And that our constant Prayer is, That You may honour the British Diadem, till it can receive no additional Lustre, nor Your People farther Happiness. And that that Day of universal Sighing may be long, yea, very long put off, when You shall resign this Earthly Crown, and receive an Immortal one, from the great Rewarder, as well as Only Ruler of Princes; and Your Diadem descend to that Protestant Head, on which the Wisdom of the Nation has plac'd it.

N. B. That, of an Hundred and Thirty, which are the full Number of the now Electors, only Two refus'd to sign the above Address.

Kensington,

Kensington, July 31:

This Day, the humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge and Isle of Ely, was presented to Her Majesty by John Bromley, Esq; Knight of the Shire, being introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Vice-Chamberlain: Which was very graciously receiv'd, and Mr. Bromley had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

Most gracious Sovereign!

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do humbly crave Leave to Cambridge congratulate Your Majesty upon that happy Turn which the Divine Provi- County, dence seems lately to have given, for the Discouraging all Attempts here- and Isle of after, to discountenance and explode any true Primitive and Apostolical Doctrine. Ely.

Permit us also, Dread Sovereign! on this particular Occasion, to repeat our Assurances of that profound Duty and true Allegiance which we owe, and shall always pay to Your Majesty; of that tender Regard we shall ever have of Your Sacred Rights and Prerogatives; of our most hearty Zeal and Affection for the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, and of our just Concern for the Preservation of the excellent Constitution of the Church of England; with so sincere an Approbation of the Toleration granted to Dissenters, that we wish to God, for the greater Security of our Church, 'twas inviolably preserv'd, and extended throughout Your Majesty's Dominions.

And as we are sincere in what we now profess, so we cannot but think ourselves oblig'd, by all the Ties Men can lie under, on all Occasions, to oppose, to the utmost of our Power, the Attempts of all ill-designing and misguided Zealots; and of all such, who, being influenc'd by Republican and Schismatical Principles, shall, under the plausible Pleas of the late happy Revolution, the Liberty of the Subject, and Moderation, most impudently dispute Your Majesty's Hereditary Title to the Crown You adorn; write and argue for the Resisting and Deposing Princes, even under the Best of Governors; and betray the Rights and Interest of our Church, for whose Welfare, at the same Time, they pretend to have the truest Concern.

To secure ourselves these Blessings, we beg Leave farther to assure Your Majesty, we shall always most readily venture our Lives and Fortunes, and use our utmost Caution and Endeavours to choose those Representatives in Parliament, who, we are well assur'd, will concur with us in such Measures and Principles.

May the Great and Good GOD, who has hitherto blest the Arms of Your Majesty, and those of Your Allies, with an uninterrupted Course of Success, vouchsafe us that greater Blessing of a speedy, honourable, and lasting Peace; And may the same good Providence, which, for our great Happiness, has been pleas'd to set Your Majesty upon the Throne of Your Ancestors, continue You upon it for many Years; and, after a long and prosperous Reign over us, may You exchange Your Temporal for an Immortal Crown: Which are the earnest Prayers of, &c.

Kensington, Aug. 11.

This Day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty, by Thomas Chaffin, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Dorset, introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulsen. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and Mr. Chaffin had the Honour to kiss Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other the Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, at the Assizes held at Dorchester, the 26th of July, Anno 1710.

May it please Your Majesty,

When Heresies and Schisms are so boldly and frequently maintained, and the Articles of our Faith, as well as the Discipline of our Church, exploded and ridiculed; when Your Majesty's Hereditary Title is disputed, and new and fantastical Opinions introduced, repugnant to Reason, and destructive to our Constitution; we should think ourselves very ill deserving the Name of Good Christians, or Loyal Subjects, did not we as openly declare our Abhorrence and Detestation of such Impious and Rebellious Principles: And cannot but, with Amazement! consider, That when the Favours of God Almighty have been so Signal and Remarkable towards us, and Your Majesty's Exemplary Virtue and Piety so conspicuous, there should be found such Malevolent Spirits amongst us, so ungrateful and disobedient to both. We beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that we will heartily resent all Indignities offer'd to Your Prerogative, and the Honour of this Kingdom: That we will support You in War, and obey You in Peace. Nor will ever be persuaded, by any Examples whatsoever, to intrude, uncalled, into Your Majesty's Councils, or sacrifice the Whole to the Ambition or Interest of a Few; but will continue to send such Members to represent us in Parliament, who shall defend Your Royal Person, the Protestant Succession, and the Church as by Law establish'd, against all Your Enemies both at Home and Abroad.

Aug.

Aug. 9. 1710.

The following Address from the County of Cambridge, was, this Day, presented to Her Majesty by Sir Rushout Cullen, Bar. one of their Representatives in Parliament; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Orford.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentlemen of the County of Cambridge, at the Assizes holden for the said County, on Monday the 24th Day of July, in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady Anne, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. Annoq; Dom. 1710.

Most gracious Sovereign!

*Cambridge
County.*

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Majesty upon the Reduction of the Strong Town of Douay; which is a fresh Instance of the Invincible Courage of Your Majesty's Troops, joined with those of Your Allies, and led by the Two greatest Generals of the Age.

When we reflect on the continued Series of Success, wherewith God hath been pleased to Bless Your Majesty's Arms during the whole Course of this Just and Necessary War, we cannot but ascribe it, next unto Him, to Your Majesty's Wise Choice of the Duke of Marlborough; who, by his Courage and Vigilance in War, and by his Care and Prudence in Foreign Negotiations, hath rendered his Services too Eminent and Important ever to be forgotten by the British Nation.

Nor is Your Majesty's Wisdom to be less admired in the other Parts of Your Administration: The Unanimity and Secrecy of Your Councils, and the able Management of Your Treasury, as they give unspeakable Satisfaction to Your most truly and faithful Subjects at Home, and Your most firm and potent Allies Abroad; so they strike Terror into Your Enemies, no less than the irresistible Force of Your Victorious Arms.

We cannot but attribute it to our unnatural Divisions at Home, that Your Majesty's Endeavours to procure a happy and lasting Peace for Your Subjects, and all Europe, have hitherto proved ineffectual.

We humbly lay hold on this Opportunity, to express to Your Majesty our just Detestation of the late Rebellious Tumults, raised and fomented by Papists, Nonjurors, and other Enemies to Your Majesty's Person and Government.

For our own parts, we do sincerely and solemnly assure Your Majesty, that we will inviolably adhere to our Oaths, to Your Majesty's Government, and the Protestant Succession, upon such Principles as are most consistent with those Oaths, with the late glorious and happy Revolution, with Your Majesty's Rightful and Lawful Title, and with the Act of Settlement of the Crown in the Protestant Line in the House of Hanover, in opposition to the Pretended Hereditary Unalienable Right of any Popish Successor whatsoever.

We do promise Your Majesty, that, according to Your most pious Exhortation from the Throne, we will study to be quiet, and mind our own Business; most firmly believing our Church to be safe under Your Majesty's present Administration, notwithstanding the malicious Insinuations of Your Enemies to the contrary: Heartily praying God long to continue Your Majesty, what You so eminently are, The great Ornament and Defender of it.

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exa<sup>t</sup> Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 8.

PART II.

Kensington, Aug. 22.

This Day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Father in God, Henry Lord Bishop of London, accompanied by above 150 of the Clergy of London and Westminster: Which Address the Queen receiv'd very graciously, and admitted them all to the Honour of kissing Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop of London, and the Clergy of London and Westminster.

May it please Your Majesty,

OUR Hearts have all along accompanied our Fellow-Subjects, the Genuine Sons of the Church of England, in their dutiful Applications to Your Majesty from Westminster all Parts of the Kingdom; we have, with great Satisfaction, observed the Zeal of the Clergy, which they have expressed in behalf of Your Regal Title and Prerogative, and the Indignation which they have shewn at the unprecedented Attempts lately made, to undermine, not only our Excellent Constitution in Church and State, but all Religion and Government.

We were the less eager to lay hold on this Occasion of Approaching Your Throne, because we had often and freely declared ourselves on these Heads from the Pulpit, under the Eye of Your Majesty, and in the Face of the whole World.

But the Time is now come, when we can no longer be innocently silent, since the Acknowledgment of Your Majesty's Hereditary Title and Irresistible Authority is openly and boldly Represented as a plain Declaration in favour of the Pretender.

We look upon the Clergy as deeply involved in this malicious Calumny, and therefore think ourselves obliged to express our utmost Abhorrence of any such disguised and traitorous Intention, which our Hearts (entirely devoted to Your Majesty) are not capable of harbouring; and which, we believe, none but the avowed or secret Friends of the Pretender would, in order to facilitate their Wicked and Dark Designs, have endeavoured to fasten upon us.

We have sworn, and are stedfastly purposed, to pay all Duty and Allegiance to Your Majesty, our Rightful and Lawful Sovereign, whose Title to the Crown, by Descent, has been affirmed and recognized by all Your Liege People in full Parliaments.

We know of no other Person who has any Claim to our Obedience, nor will we ever do any thing, either in or after Your Majesty's Reign (should we be so unfortunate as to Survive it) which may seem in the least to favour such Claims and Pretensions.

On Your Majesty alone our Eyes are now fixed; all our Wishes and Vows are employed for the Length, Peace and Prosperity of Your Reign; and whenever it shall please God, for our Sins, to withdraw so invaluable a Blessing, without any Alleviation of the Loss by Issue from Your Majesty, we Acknowledge the most Illustrious House of Hanover, as the next Heirs in the Protestant Line, to have the only Right of Ascending the Throne, and indisputable Title to our Allegiance.

We thank God, from the Bottom of our Hearts, for the Legal Provisions, in this regard, made, to secure us from Popery and Arbitrary Power, which we once, thro' the Divine Assistance, vigorously and successfully withstood, when they were breaking in upon our Constitution; nor shall we fail to manifest an equal Zeal against them, whenever, and by what means soever, they shall meditate a Return.

This, we are firmly persuaded, is the unanimous Sense and Resolution of the Clergy, not only of these Cities, but of the whole Kingdom, as we doubt not will appear to Your Majesty, whenever they have an Opportunity of expressing it in Convocation.

In the mean time, we shall not cease to bow our Knees to God, and most ardently to pray, that he would multiply and increase the Successes with which Your Wise and Just Designs have been hitherto attended, and continue to Bless Your Arms and Counsels till they have effectually subdued the restless Enemies of our Peace both at Home and Abroad, defeated the Menaces of the Proud, and the Devices of the Crafty, and scattered all the People that delight in War.

Her Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Answer:

I Take very kindly the Assurances of Duty you give Me in this Address, and the Regard you express for the Protestant Succession.

H

Kensington,

Kensington, Aug. 20.

This Day, the following Address from the Borough of Hindon, in the County of Wilts, was presented to Her Majesty by George Morley, Esq. accompany'd by the Honourable Henry Bertie, Esq. and Col. Morley, and introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Address was receiv'd very graciously, and Mr. Morley and the other Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Minister, and Burgage-Holders, of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Hindon, in the County of Wilts.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty!

*Hindon
Borough.*

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Minister, and Burgage-Holders of Your ancient Borough of Hindon, have, with Admiration and Gratitude, beheld the many Blessings which God hath bestowed upon this Nation, since Your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne.

We have had the Satisfaction to see a Queen that hath made the Law the Rule of her Actions; that hath been steady in the Profession and Practice of the most Holy Religion she was bred up in; indulgent to those that dissented from it; relieving the Oppress'd, protecting the Weak, and pulling down those that were growing too great for their Neighbours. A Glorious Series of Successes is therefore the just Reward of such extraordinary Virtue and Piety.

We cannot then but wonder at the daring Insolence of a restless Sett of Men, who give Protection and Encouragement to those heinous Crimes of Schism in the Church, and Resistance to Princes, sowing daily their Heretical and Antimonarchical Principles in every Corner of this Kingdom; openly renouncing Your Majesty's Hereditary Right to the Crown, paring, by degrees, Your Title, as if, in time, they design'd to leave none.

Our Principles, Madam, we receive from the Gospel, which teaches us Submission to the most pure and uncorrupted Doctrines of our Holy Mother, the Church of England; and Obedience to Your Majesty, the Glorious Defender of it. We beg Leave, therefore, with the greatest Humility, to assure Your Majesty, that when You shall think fit to call a new Parliament, we will choose such Representatives, as will strenuously support Your Majesty's Prerogative, vigorously maintain Your Hereditary Right to the Throne of Your Ancestors, and zealously defend the Church of England, and the Protestant Succession, as they are by Law establish'd.

Kensington, Aug. 21.

The following Address was, this Day, presented to Her Majesty, by the Reverend Dr. Ortlby, Archdeacon of Salop, Dr. Robert Phillips, and Mr. Andrews, introduc'd by Mr. Harley, Chancellor of Her Majesty's Exchequer. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and the Gentlemen had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Clergy of the Archdeaconries of Salop within the Diocess of Hereford, and of Salop within the Diocess of Litchfield and Coventry.

Most Gracious and Dread Sovereign!

*Salop
Clergy.*

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, at a time, when Your Royal Prerogative, in so insolent a manner, is attack'd; and when such Republican and Rebellious Principles, as once destroy'd this Church and State, are not only industriously maintain'd and propagated, but carried on in such a manner, that the Clergy of the Church of England are publicly discountenanc'd, for asserting her true and sound Doctrines; and Academies of Schism and Faction are publicly set up, in Opposition to the Universities, the best Nurseries of Obedience to Governours, do, in the most humble, dutiful, and loyal manner, beg Leave to approach Your Throne, heartily and sincerely to assure Your Majesty, that we will always vindicate Your Hereditary Right to the Crown of Your Royal Ancestors, the Protestant Succession, and the Church of England as by Law establish'd, at the Expence of all that is dear to us; and will shew, by the Examples of our Lives and Soundness of our Doctrines, our Duty and firm Adherence to Your Majesty, and the Tenets and Discipline of our truly Apostolical Church, against all publick Enemies Abroad, and Rebellious and Factious Designs at Home.

May the Almighty prosper Your glorious Endeavours, with a continu'd Series of Success; and grant, as you add the brightest Lustre to the Throne, which You now adorn, so may You, after a long Reign, be rewarded with a more glorious and immortal Crown, which shall be the hearty and earnest Prayers of,

Your Majesty's most Dutiful, and Loyal Subjects and Servants.

Kensington,

Kensington; Aug. 18.

This Day the following Address from the Borough of Fowey, was presented to Her Majesty by George Granville, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being sent up by Henry Vincent, Jun. Esq; their other Representative, and Philip Raleigh, Esq; their Recorder; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Portreeve, Prince's Tenants, and Free-Burgeses of the Ancient and Loyal Borough of Fowey, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to assure You of our Fowey hearty Concurrence with the rest of Your Dutiful People, in declaring our Borough utter Abhorrence and Detestation of all Antimonarchical Principles, and Antichristian Doctrines, such especially as, of late, have been so confidently spread, and so scandalously defended, in Defiance of Christianity and Allegiance.

The Persons truly and only dangerous to Your Majesty, and the Protestant Succession, are those who, by denying Your Hereditary Right to the Crown, would derive Your Title from the sole Gift of the People; those who impiously and seditiously suggest and maintain Resistance to be justifiable, which our Laws punish with Death, and our Religion with Damnation; those who infamously turn Liberty into Licentiousness, Toleration into Atheism, and Government into Faction; those who presume to dispute and obstruct Your Majesty's Wisdom in the Choice of Your Servants; or the Regulation of Your Ministry: And, lastly, those who, while they insolently endeavour to restrain and suppress the Royal Authority, require an implicit Obedience to themselves, and exercise an unlimited Tyranny over their Fellow-Subjects.

We, therefore, cannot but concur with the rest of Your dutiful People, in disavowing such dangerous Principles, in declaring a due Submission to Your Royal Will and Pleasure, and a chearful Acquiescence in Your Wisdom, in all the Parts of Your Administration.

And, whenever it shall seem convenient to Your Majesty to call a new Parliament, we will continue to be represented by such Persons as are of known Loyalty to the Crown, and well affected to the Church, and Protestant Succession; and clear from all Suspicion of wanting Tenderness for the Rights, Liberties, or Lives of their Fellow-Subjects.

The following Address, from the County-Palatine of Durham, having been presented to the Queen by the Right Honourable the Lord Dartmouth, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; the same was receiv'd very graciously by Her Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Clergy, and Gentry, of the County-Palatine of Durham, met at the General Assizes for the same, the 2d Day of August, 1710.

M A D A M,

OUR last Address to Your Majesty being only from our Quarter-Sessions; we, Durham Your Majesty's most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, think it our Duty, once more, County- to renew our former Assurances, at this greater, and more solemn Time of our Assizes, Palatine: that Your Majesty may see our Resolutions and Zeal, for supporting Your Sacred Person, Your Rightful and Lawful Title to this Imperial Crown, (as well Hereditary as otherwise) grow daily more vigorous and strong, for the Monarchy and the Church of England.

Nor are we less concern'd for Maintaining the Protestant Succession in the illustrious House of Hanover, against all Pretenders whatsoever.

And, therefore, whenever Your Majesty shall, in Your great Wisdom, judge it reasonable to call a New Parliament, we unanimously resolve to take special Care in choosing such Representatives, whose very Principles will oblige them to answer these Ends and Purposes.

As for those whose Consciences are truly scrupulous, and cannot conform to the Communion of our Church, (such is our Moderation) that we shall always have a tender Regard to them; and their Exemption from all Penalties, upon this Account, already granted, shall be inviolably observ'd by us.

That Your Majesty may long live, and quietly enjoy the Glory of Your Successes, against the Common, and all other Your Enemies Abroad, and a peaceable Reign over all Your Subjects at Home, is the hearty Prayer of,

M A D A M,

Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Kensington,

Kensington, August 21.

This day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Charles Barrington, Bar. Foreman of the Grand-Jury; and William Fytche, Esq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain. Which Address the Queen receiv'd very graciously; and Sir Charles Barrington and Mr. Fytche had the Honour of kissing her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen, met at the Assizes holden at Chelmsford, for the County of Essex, on Wednesday the 2d day of August, 1710.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Essex
County.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Royal Presence, to assure your Majesty of our just Detestation and Abhorrence of those Antimonarchical, Republican, and Atheistical Principles, which are daily broach'd, and industriously propagated, by your Majesty's Enemies, who endeavour to render the Imperial Hereditary Crown of these Realms precarious, by insinuating, that when your Majesty, or your Successors, shall do what they shall construe to be a Breach of an imaginary Contract, the Subjects are discharg'd from their Allegiance.

The Danger to which the best of Queens, and best of Governments are expos'd by such Persons, and such Principles, lays an indispensable Obligation upon us, of offering the Sacrifice of our Lives and Estates, in Defence of your Majesty's Rights and Prerogative, and of our holy Church as by Law establish'd, with Assurances, that we will defend and maintain the Protestant Succession as settled and limited by Act of Parliament; to which we are fully convinc'd nothing can be so dangerous, as the asserting the Hereditary Right of the Crown of these Kingdoms to be in any other than your Majesty.

And therefore, when it shall be your Royal Pleasure to take the Advice of a new Parliament, we will do our utmost to be represented by Gentlemen, who shall concur in the making of Laws for suppressing such dangerous Principles, and in voting Supplies sufficient to discharge the Debts of the Nation, and retrieve and establish the Publick Credit, which hath been endeavour'd to be sunk and lessen'd by some whose Duty and particular Promise it was to have supported it; and that for no other End, but to restrain your Majesty from that Liberty which is enjoy'd by the meanest of your Subjects, even the Appointment of your own Servants.

May your Majesty enjoy as great a Share and Proportion of the Blessings of this Life, as there is laid up in store for you in the next; and may all your dutiful and loyal Subjects join with us in our hearty Wishes and Endeavours to render your Crown safe and easy, and to preserve your Majesty from the Malice, and Danger of those who are not Friends to any Government, longer than they are entrusted with the Administration.

Note. This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 9.

P A R T II.

Kensington, Sept. 11.

The following Address of the Bishop of Exeter, the Canons, and other Dignitaries of St. Peter's, and the Clergy of the City of Exeter and Parts adjacent, was presented to Her Majesty by Dr. Atterbury, Arch Deacon of Totness and Dean of Carlisle, introduc'd by the Right Honourable Robert Harley, Esq; Chancellor of the Exchequer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop of Exeter, the Canons, and other Dignitaries of St. Peter's, and the Clergy of Exeter, and Parts adjacent:

Most Gracious Sovereign!

THough Your Majesty is thoroughly acquainted with the Principles of the English Clergy, and Exeter (as we humbly hope) entirely satisfied of their Loyalty, yet we cannot but think it our Duty, at this Time, to join in the general Voice and Applications of Your Subjects of all Conditions, and from all Quarters of the Land, to give Your Majesty all possible Assurances that our Principles are the same they ever were, and our Affection to Your Sacred Person and Government unmovable.

The late wicked Attempts of the Enemies of revealed Religion against the Truths of Christianity, and particularly against the Doctrines of the Church of England, have made it necessary for all the faithful Sons of that Church to appear for Her with a Dutiful and Zealous Concern; and the Opposers of true English Loyalty have oblig'd the generous Spirits of this Nation, with an extraordinary Ardour, to renew their Vows of Fidelity to Your Majesty. We bless God for this seasonable Interposition of his Providence, in Behalf of this Church and of the Crown; for inspiring the Friends of each of them (which are indeed always the Friends of both) with Zeal and Resolution suitable to the Exigency of the present Time, and by this Means turning the Designs of our implacable Enemies, to the visible Advantage of our Religion, Country, and Constitution, both in Church and State.

For ourselves, notwithstanding all the Endeavours that have been us'd, secretly and openly, to introduce into the Minds of Your Majesty's People, Irreligious, Factions, and Republican Opinions, we are determin'd, by the Divine Assistance, stedfastly to adhere to the good old Principles we have learnt, and have constantly taught, and to pay Your Majesty such an Obedience as our Holy Religion and the Laws of the Land require of us, as our strict indispensable Duty; at the same Time esteeming ourselves bound by Your Majesty's singular Goodness, and manifold Favours towards us, to acknowledge the same to Your Majesty as a Debt of Gratitude.

And we do, with all humble Confidence, rely on Your Sacred Majesty for the Continuance of Your Royal Protection to this National Church, and Your particular Encouragement to all the sincere Members of it. And this we promise ourselves, not only from Your Majesty's Royal Word and repeated Declarations, but also from Your Native Goodness, Your Exemplary Piety, so acceptable to God, and admir'd by Men, Your known Regard and Esteem for our happy Establishment, and the many great Things You have already done for it, since it pleas'd the Divine Providence, by an agreeable Dispensation, to place the Guardianship of the best of Churches in the Hands of the best of Queens.

May it long remain in those Hands; and may the Divine Goodness go on conspicuously to Prosper and Bless Your Majesty in the Custody and Protection of it. May God preserve You from all those that would invade Your Kingdoms from Abroad, and from those who would disturb the Quiet of Your Government at Home. That neither the detestable Superstition of Popery may ever again return and prevail against us, nor the pretended Fears of it any longer divide and distract us. May Your Fleets and Armies continue their victorious Progress, till they shall have restored to Your Subjects the ever desirable Blessing of Peace. And may the same good Providence which has brought Your Majesty to succeed by just Right of Inheritance in the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors, to the great Joy of this present Generation, effectually provide for the like Happiness of Posterity, by continuing the Protestant Succession to the Crown, as it is now settled by Law, in the Heirs of Your Majesty's Body, (a Blessing we are still willing to hope for) and in Default of such Issue, in the most illustrious House of Hanover.

These, may it please Your Majesty, are the dutiful Sentiments of us, whose Names are subscrib'd, and, we believe, we may truly say, of the whole Body of the Clergy of this large Diocese; and (we doubt not) will also be found agreeable to the Sense of all the Clergy of the Church of England by Law establish'd, whenever Your Majesty shall be graciously pleas'd to receive it in full Convocation.

Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and the Arch-Deacon had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

Kensington,

Kensington, Sept. 7.

This day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Kilmorey; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort: Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and my Lord Kilmorey had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

N<sup>o</sup> B. This Noble Gentleman was formerly a Non-Juror, and brought over to the Government by Dr. Sacheverell, in his Journey into Shropshire.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, in the Assizes held for that County, the 3d day of August, 1710.

Salop
County.

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, being deeply affected with the Reproach undeservedly cast upon our County, by a Representation laid before Your Majesty, in April last; whereby divers of Your Majesty's Faithful Subjects were unjustly traduc'd with the promoting of Tumults, and disturbing the Publick Peace:

Humbly beg Leave to acquaint Your Majesty, that that Representation was false and groundless, and was maliciously compos'd, and design'd to draw down Your Majesty's Displeasure upon us.

Since we have thus presum'd to approach Your Sacred Majesty, we shall take this Opportunity of expressing our utmost Detestation of that Vile and Jesuitical Doctrine of Resistance, which has of late been so insolently asserted in the most publick manner; a Doctrine destructive to Monarchy and all Civil Government; a Doctrine which brought Your Royal Grandfather to the Block, the Guilt of which Horrid Fact still lies heavy upon the Nation, and will be felt by distant Posterity.

And that Your Majesty may be assured the Address we now humbly offer is not obtained in a clandestine and unusual manner, but that we speak the Sense of our Country, whenever Your Majesty (in Compassion to Your People) shall be pleas'd to call another Parliament, we will send such Representatives as will act with an unlimited Obedience to Your Majesty's Authority, with Justice and Regard to the Liberties and Franchises of their Fellow-Subjects, with a due Tendernefs to Consciences truly scrupulous, with a firm Resolution of continuing the Succession in the Protestant Line, and of the Church of England as by Law establish'd.

May the Almighty long continue Your Majesty to reign over us.

May He more and more confirm and strengthen Your Majesty in the Virtues of Prudence, Justice, and Fortitude, (with which the Crown is already so richly adorn'd) and may Your Majesty partake of all the Blessings to which these excellent Vertues lead, both in and after this Life.

Kensington, Sept. 10. 1710.

The following Address from the ancient Borough of Holt, in the County of Denbigh, was presented to Her Majesty by William Carter, Esq; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Poulett: Which Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and the Gentlemen, who attended the same, had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Holt, al. Lyons, in the County of Denbigh, at a Court held in the same Borough, upon the 9th day of June, Anno Dom. 1710.

Holt Bo-
rough.

TH E gracious Acceptance Your Majesty has been pleas'd to grant many Loyal Addresses, which have been of late presented, encourag'd us humbly to hope You will not reject This, which comes from Your Majesty's very ancient Corporation of Holt, a Place eminent for its Loyalty and Sufferings, and was one of the last Garrisons that held out (against the Traiterous Rebels) for Your Royal Grandfather, of ever blessed and glorious Memory. And tho' the greatest part of our Town was, in those rebellious Times, reduc'd to Ashes; nor has it at any time since been able to recover its former prosperous State; yet we esteem it our Happiness and Glory still to retain That, which no sort of Violence could ever take from us, Our Firm and Unshaken Loyalty; which, as it utterly detests and abhors all those Damnable Doctrines and Republican Principles, which brought that Blessed Martyr to the Block (and which ought not to be once named under the Best of Governments, and the Mildest of Administrations) so will it ever study, according to what Power is in us, upon all Occasions, to exert itself in the Service and Defence of Your Majesty's Person and Government, the Protestant Succession as by Law establish'd, and of our pure Apostolick Church, upon the Safety of which, that of Your Majesty does, in a great Measure, depend.

May that good Providence which has hitherto so graciously preserv'd both You and it, continue still to do so, against all the open Attempts of Your profess'd Enemies, and the more dangerous private Designs of Your pretended Friends; such whose Occasional Conformity to the Church gives them Opportunity of wounding her more securely, and whose dissimul'd Zeal for your Majesty's Government is employ'd only in disputing your most undoubted Hereditary Title, and encouraging Resistance to your Sacred Person.

From all such Enemies, and whatever else might any ways disturb or molest your Reign, we shall ever pray that the Almighty will preserve and protect You; That the Happiness we enjoy, under Your most excellent Administration, may be lasting as it is great; and, That late, very late, You may receive that Crown of Glory, which alone can reward Your exemplary Piety towards God, Your almighty Care of his Church, and Your great Clemency to Your People.

Kensington,

Kensington, Aug. 27.

This Day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Packington, Bar. introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Address was receiv'd very graciously, and Sir John had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Aldermen, Sheriff, Grand-jury, Common-Council, and Capital Citizens of the ancient loyal City of Worcester, at the Assizes held there the 12th Day of August, 1710. for the County of the said City.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do, in all Humility, with Worcester the sincerest Joy, congratulate your most Sacred Majesty upon the many City. great and glorious Victories and Advantages obtain'd in this just and necessary War; which we will, to the utmost of our Power, enable your Majesty to prosecute, till your Enemies shall sue for Peace with Sincerity, or be no longer able to oppose your victorious Arms.

We do also, in an awful Sense of your great Goodness, take this Opportunity to return your Majesty our most hearty Thanks for placing the Duke of Shrewsbury, a Person of that ancient Honour and distinguish'd Virtue, in the Lieutenancy over us; whose Ancestors were ever firmly Loyal, and truly Faithful to the Crown, and himself no less Exemplary in his Conduct for the Church's Safety, at the late Tryal of it, in Opposition to those false and dangerous Tenets, which make Way for Faction and Rebellion to usurp the Place of Loyalty and Obedience.

We cannot but profess our unanimous Detestation of all such Principles as would render your Royal Person unsafe, and your Government precarious; and of all Addresses that have a Tendency to Ends so horrid and impious: But being Sons of true Subjects to, and loyal Sufferers for your Royal Grandfather, will stand by and defend your undoubted Hereditary Right to the Crown of these Kingdoms, and inseparably adhere to and maintain that Church for which he died a Martyr. And whenever your most Sacred Majesty shall, in your great Wisdom, (which is every Day more and more wonderfully Conspicuous, in promoting the true Interest of your People) think fit to call a new Parliament, we will endeavour to send such Representatives, as will support your just Title, and readily concur with your Majesty, in preserving the Rights of the Crown, and the Liberties of your People.

Kensington, Aug. 29.

This Day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Downe, introduc'd by Mr. Harley, Chancellor of Her Majesty's Exchequer; which Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and his Lordship had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentry, met at the Summer-Assizes, Anno Dom. 1710. at the City of York; together with the Rt. Hon. the Lord-Mayor, and several principal Inhabitants of the said City.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, in Opposition to all your Enemies, beg Leave, in this publick manner, to declare before God and the County World, that your Majesty is, by Hereditary Right, as well as by Legal Establishment, and City. our Lawful and Rightful Queen, and only Supreme Governor, in all Causes, over all Persons and Estates, Spiritual and Temporal; and that it is not lawful, on any Pretence whatsoever, to resist your Majesty; that we abhor all impious and seditious Principles, especially that traiterous Position, of taking up Arms, by your Authority, against your Person. We do assure your Majesty, we are ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, in Defence of your Sacred Person, your Heirs, and Protestant Successors, and the Government, by Law establish'd, in Church and State, as Members of our excellently constituted Church. We desire, that a Toleration may be continued to Consciences truly Scrupulous; but it would grieve us to see this advanc'd into an Establishment, so as to annul those Laws which were design'd for our Defence; yet we are so entirely satisfy'd in your Majesty's Affection to our Church, and true Zeal for Religion, that we are persuad'd our Enemies will never be able to hurt us. We look upon it as high Presumption, in any Persons whatsoever, to intrude into your Majesty's Council, and to dictate the Choice of Persons, Times, and Seasons; the Appointment of which ought wholly to be left to your Princely Wisdom; and how soon soever that Wisdom shall think it seasonable to call a new Parliament, we will use our utmost Endeavours to choose Representatives of the same Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and the same Principles in Church and State which we do thus solemnly profess.

London,

London, September 19.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by Crew Offley, Esq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Second Inquest, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County-Palatine of Chester, assembled at the Assizes at Chester, on the 28th Day of August, in the Ninth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Chester
County-
Palatine.

Since others of our Fellow-Subjects have presented their Professions of Loyalty to your Majesty, permit us, Dread Sovereign! to tender our unfeigned Ones, and to congratulate the wonderful Success of your Arms.

We esteem it our highest Felicity, that your Majesty reigns over us, and that a Protestant Succession is secured to us by Law, joyfully acknowledging your undoubted Title, without presuming to distinguish betwixt your Parliamentary and Hereditary Right, much less to prefer that which your glorious Predecessor King William had not, the Illustrious House of Hanover most probably will not have, and to which, in your Majesty's own Time, there is a Popish Pretender.

The Peace and Order of the Kingdom require our Submission to all legal Determinations, especially those of your highest Court: And we cannot, without Detestation, think of censuring a Parliamentary Proceeding, which was so just and so necessary, and which has had your Majesty's most solemn Approbation from the Throne: The condemning of which, strikes at your Majesty's Authority, the Judicature of the Lords, the Privileges of the Commons, and the very Constitution of Parliaments.

We shall always pay a dutiful and chearful Submission to your Majesty's Government; and it is with Resentment we behold those Insurrections and Riots which were begun in your Metropolis, and propagated thro' a considerable part of your Kingdom, to countenance an insolent Offender.

Whilst we esteem the late Revolution happy, and consider the Part your Majesty had in it, what Prevarication and Undutifulness should we be guilty of, should we insinuate, that the Means of the Revolution were unjust, or represent the Principles of it as Antimonarchical.

But such Methods as these have been made use of to inflame and divide us, and have prevented that Blessing of Peace, which otherwise, by this time, we might have enjoy'd; and therefore, we hope the Promoters of these Distractions will no longer grudge the Payment of Taxes, for carrying on that War which they have prolong'd. We have just cause to adore the divine Providence and Goodness, that notwithstanding the Attempts of our crafty Enemies at home, our proud Enemies abroad have been humbled, by the continuance of those never-failing Successes which attend upon your consummate General in Flanders; and those great and seasonable ones, which the Zeal and Fidelity of your General in Spain, and his Love to publick Liberty, have been rewarded with.

These are Blessings which call for our highest Acknowledgments to Almighty God, the Author of them, and Duty to your Majesty, who has procured them for us; and we most sincerely congratulate your Majesty upon them, and pray they may terminate in the Establishment of your Throne, by a safe and honourable Peace.

May Old English Liberty prevail, and never be exchange'd for Licentiousness.

May the Church of England continue to be Prosperous, but never Dictate to, or be Independent on the State.

May the Difference between that and other Protestant Churches, never be widen'd.

But as that Church was first reformed by the Authority of the Civil Power; and as it has had the Honour, ever since, to be the Bulwark of the Protestant Interest, so it may always continue upon the same Foot.

And may your Majesty's Reign be long, as it has been glorious, over a Happy and free People.

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2d. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 10.

PART II.

London, Nov. 24.

This Day the following Address from the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, was presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable Mr. Henry Brydges, one of their Representatives in Convocation, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN.

The humble Address of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester.May it please Your Most Excellent Majesty,

TO permit us, the Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, humbly to cast ourselves at Your Royal Feet, with the deepest Sense of our Duty and Obligations to Your Majesty, for Your tender Concern for the Support and Welfare of that excellent Church, the Church of England, as by Law establish'd.

For, if we consider the daring Attempts of Atheists, Socinians, and Deists, who endeavour to make Shipwreck of our most holy Faith and Doctrines; of Papists, Hereticks, and Schismatics, who unite in the same Interest, and endeavour to confound the Order of our holy Worship; if we consider the Antimonarchical, Seditious, and Rebellious Principles that are, with so much Industry, propagated and spread in Your Land; our Sacred Orders vilify'd and contemn'd; and that damnable Doctrine of Resistance, under the mildest and best of Reigns, defended; and, in effect, another Gospel preach'd by Men of turbulent Spirits, and ignorant of that meek and peaceable Doctrine of the Prince of Peace, to make way for the Disturbance of Church and State; Tenets peculiar to Papists and Fanaticks; and a Deluge of Immorality consequent thereupon: When we consider this, and much more of the like Nature and Tendency, we may gladly say, Who knows but that Your Majesty is come to the Kingdom for such a Time as this?

It is with unspeakable Satisfaction we reflect upon the Happiness our Church enjoys under Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign; assuring You of our incessant Prayers for Your Majesty's long Life, Health, Peace, and Prosperity; and in so doing, we will, under God, still hope for Your Royal Favour and Protection, in the Exercise and Enjoyment of all our Church-Rights and Immunities.

And may all Orders and Degrees amongst us be willingly obedient, not only for Wrath, but Conscience-sake; and may Your Clergy (especially) constantly preach the Truth, boldly rebuke Vice, and, if call'd to it, patiently suffer for the Truth's sake. And then may such a Happy People, under such a Happy Queen, be ever ready, with all Thankfulness, to acknowledge the Divine Favour to us: And when You shall late enjoy in Heaven an Eternal Crown, we farther pray, That this which You, by an undoubted Hereditary Right, so justly enjoy, and now so gloriously adorn, may descend to, and continue in the Protestant Succession, to the Defence of this Primitive Church; and that our Sion may yet become a Praise in the Earth.

Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and Mr. Brydges had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

Hampton-Court, Oct. 30.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty, by the Reverend Mr. Vesey, Chaplain to the Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord-Keeper.

To the QUEEN's most excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford.

Oxford
Clergy.

W E Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, knowing it to be always the indispensable Duty of our Function, to cry aloud, and spare not, think our Silence, at this time, would be inexcusable, both to God and Your Majesty, his Vice-gerent, when Blasphemous and Atheistical, Seditious and Republican Principles are so openly taught, and so directly tend to the utter Subversion of Religion, and Destruction of Monarchy.

And we beg leave to assure Your Majesty, that we shall on all Occasions give the highest Instances of our unalterable Affection to Your Sacred Person and Government: That we conscientiously observe those Oaths we have willingly taken; That our Prayers for Your long and happy Reign over us, proceed from our Hearts as well as Lips; That we preach up an absolute Submission to the Supreme Authority, without Fanatical Distinctions, or Jesuitical Reservations; which not being warranted by the Word of God, we verily believe, that those who teach Men so, how great soever they may be in this World, shall be call'd the least in the Kingdom of Heaven.

That Your Majesty may long live and reign over us, to see the Church enjoy the Advantages of Your Royal Bounty and Piety; That Your Princely Wisdom may be no less successful in Suppressing Schism and Faction, Blasphemy and Atheism at home, than Your Arms have been in Subduing Your Enemies abroad; and that You may late resign the undoubted Prerogatives of the Crown, the pure Doctrines of the Church, and the just Liberties of the Subject secure, to the Illustrious House of HANOVER, are the daily Prayers of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Her Majesty was pleas'd graciously to receive this Address, and the Clergy had the Honour of Kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, Nov. 26.

This day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by George Granville and John Trevanion, Esqrs; Knights of the Shire for the County of Cornwall, attended by a great Number of the principal Gentlemen of that County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, at Lestwithiell, the Second Day of Nov. 1710.

May it please Your Majesty,

Cornwall
County.

W E the High-Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of Your loyal County of Cornwall, being assembled together, with Hearts entirely united for the Support of Your Majesty's Government, humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, That we have endeavour'd with the utmost Zeal to answer Your Gracious Intentions in Dissolving Your last Parliament, by chusing such Representatives as we are well assur'd will earnestly contend, with the rest of Your dutiful Subjects, in the Defence of the Monarchy, the Church of England, and the Protestant Succession as by Law established.

We farther assure Your Majesty, that we will have the greatest Regard to the Honour and Welfare of the Nation, by contributing, with all Chearfulness, to the Prosecution of the War, and to the Maintenance of the Publick Credit.

We likewise presume upon this Occasion to express our great Satisfaction in being under the immediate Care and Protection of the Earl of Rochester, during the Minority of the Earl of Bath, whose Name and Family must be always dear to this Your ever loyal County.

May Your Majesty long live to be the Support and Ornament of that Church, which is the Beauty and Strength of the Reformation, as well as the Envy of its Adversaries; and Your Majesty's Arms be more and more victorious, and may the prudent Counsels of Your Ministers be ever as successful as Your Choice of them has been pleasing to all Your Faithful Subjects.

Hampton-

Hampton-Court, Oct. 21.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the County of Hampshire, presented to Her Majesty by Peter Meets, Esq; Chancellor of the Diocese of Winchester, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Those dutiful Congratulations, which we do with great Pleasure observe to flow from all Parts Winchester of your Kingdom, are more justly due from your Clergy; who being cherish'd by your Clergy. Bounty, and distinguish'd by your Favour, are particularly interested in your Happiness.

The wonderful Course of Successes, wherewith God has blessed your Arms; and the good Hopes we have, that your Throne will be soon established in Peace, are not more proper Occasions for our Joy, than that wonderful Prevalence of Truth, over the Minds of your People; and that vigorous Zeal, wherewith they contend for those Apostolical Doctrines, which are the sure Support of your Crown.

This happy Disposition in your Subjects, is chiefly owing (under God) to your Majesty's Exemplary Piety and Goodness; and to your Royal Favour and Countenance, we ascribe the Advantage we have of improving their good Inclinations in being permitted to speak the Truth with Boldness.

As we have the deepest, and most grateful Sense of the manifold Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, so no Imputation is more injurious to us, and which we more abhor, than that of Disaffection to your Majesty, and the Protestant Succession. And tho' we are fully persuaded that these Reproaches find no Credit with your Majesty; yet, to remove all unjust Surmizes, we humbly crave leave to repeat, at this time, the Assurances already given, of our most sincere Duty and Obedience to Your Majesty; and, moreover, openly to recognize your Majesty's Just and Hereditary Title to the Crown of these Realms, deriv'd to you from your Royal Progenitors, and devolving, in Failure of Issue from Your Majesty, upon the most Illustrious House of Hanover.

In thus avowing your Majesty's Hereditary Right, we entirely disclaim all Design of Favouring the Pretences of such as are excluded by our Laws, and whose Titles we have abjur'd.

These Professions will come (we doubt not) with a better Grace from the whole Body of your Clergy, when they shall have the desirable Opportunity of being assembled in Convocation: But as none can be more sincerely made, so we humbly hope your Majesty will forgive the Forwardness of our Zeal, and the Overflowing of our Duty, when under the deep Sense of your surpassing Goodness (as in many other Instances, so particularly in that of placing a * Person of inbred Loyalty and undivided Affection to our Church at the Head of our County) it would be uneasy to us to keep Silence.

* The Duke of Beaufort.

It is our sincere, and constant Prayer, that your Reign may be Long and Prosperous; and that, if God shall take you from us without Issue, there may rise a Prince out of the Illustrious House of Hanover, like unto you, who may Comfort this Nation, under that, which must otherwise be thought an insupportable Calamity.

On Monday, Oct. 23. the following Address was presented to Her Majesty, at Hampton-Court, by the Right Honourable Sir Samuel Garrard, Bar. Lord Mayor, at the Head of the New Lieutenancy; which Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and the Gentlemen had the Honour of kissing Her Hand; and were afterwards entertain'd; at the Queen's Charge, with a most Noble Entertainment.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord-Mayor, and the rest of Your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy, for the City of London.

Dread Sovereign!

NO sooner did we find ourselves honour'd by your Royal Commission, but we unanimously resolv'd to crave Leave humbly to prostrate ourselves before you, to assure you, That our Fidelity to your Majesty shall ever remain most Firm and Inviolable. London Lieutenancy.

We should be utterly unworthy of that Trust which you have been pleas'd to repose in us, were we not fully determin'd to employ those Arms which your Majesty has put into our Hands, for the Defence of your Royal Person and Prerogative.

We own your Right to be Divine, your Person Sacred, and your Throne to be Hereditary, and will always be prepar'd to hazard All that is dear to us, in Defence of your Crown, against the Influence of any Faction at Home, and the despicable Menaces of a Pretender Abroad.

The Primitive and Apostolical Doctrines and Precepts of our Pure and Undeified Mother, the Church of England, we will Observe, Support, and Defend, in Opposition to Popery on the one Hand, and Fanaticism on the other, however, with a tender Regard to those truly Conscientious, who quietly enjoy their Liberty, without disturbing Her Peace. And we are firmly resolv'd to maintain, to the utmost of our Power, the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

And as we cannot omit to congratulate your Majesty on the great and uninterrupted Successes, with which it hath pleas'd the Divine Goodness to bless your Majesty's Arms, and those of your Allies, Abroad; so we do, with equal Joy and Gratitude, reflect on the Wisdom of your Councils at Home, so greatly tending to the Ease, Satisfaction, and Welfare of your People, and the Preservation and Maintenance of our most Excellent and Happy Constitution.

May the Almighty, as a Reward of your Majesty's Piety, yet vouchsafe such farther Successes, as may procure the Blessings of a lasting Peace: And may your Majesty long live and reign in the Hearts of all your People.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Answer.

I Thank you heartily for this Dutiful Address; and take this Occasion to recommend to You that Part of Your Duty, the Preserving the Peace of the City.

I also desire you, as you have great Fortunes of your own, that you will use your Endeavours to support the Publick Credit.

London.

London, Nov. 18.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty, at Hampton-Court, on Thursday the 16th of November, by the Reverend Mr. Goode, Rector of Welden, in the County of Northampton; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household.

The humble Address of the Clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough.

Dread Sovereign!

Peterborough Clergy.

AS we have, with extreme Satisfaction, observ'd the seasonable Zeal and Earnestness of all Your Majesty's truly Loyal and Affectionate Subjects, in expressing on the One hand their great Concern for Your Royal Person, Government, and the Protestant Succession; and on the Other, their utter Hatred and Detestation of those pernicious and damnable Doctrines of Faction, Sedition, and Rebellion, which have been so lately avow'd and maintain'd in such an open and daring manner:

So, that Your Majesty may be equally sensible of our hearty Concurrence with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects in their Sentiments of Duty and Obedience, We, the Clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough, do beg Leave, tho' late, humbly to approach Your Royal Presence with our solemn Assurances not only of a firm and steady Adherence to Your Majesty, but to the Protestant Succession, as it is establish'd by Law in the Illustrious House of Hanover, in Opposition to all Papists, Non-Jurors, and Republicans.

And were we not oblig'd to both, by the strongest Ties and Obligations imaginable, even those of our most solemn Words and Oaths, yet no one, surely, of an impartial and unprejudic'd Judgment, can ever imagine, that we who teach, believe, and know all the Doctrines of the Church of England to be truly Primitive and Apostolical; that we, who have, several of us, in Defence of those very Doctrines, to the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, oppos'd that Torrent of Popish Tyranny and Superstition, that was breaking in upon us in a late Reign, should endeavour to introduce it in the present, or any other that shall succeed.

We might be justly branded with the infamous Character of the highest Ingratitude, and be accounted the most insensible Men living, both of our own Interest, and the many Blessings we enjoy under Your Majesty's auspicious Reign, shou'd we, for the Sake of one whom we have abjur'd, and under whom we must expect nothing but Popery and Slavery, desert our just and lawful Sovereign, the most pious, best, and mildest of Queens that ever wielded the English Scepter; a Queen whose Title to the Crown is unquestionably Hereditary; a Queen who has been bountiful to our Holy Church, in a more extraordinary Manner than any of Her Royal Ancestors; a Queen so excellently good and gracious, that it is as impossible for us to speak of her without Commendation, as it is for our Commendations to equal Her Virtues.

We therefore humbly intreat Your most Sacred Majesty, sincerely to believe, that we will religiously and inviolably observe our Oaths of Allegiance to Your Majesty, and of Abjuration against the Pretender: That we shall constantly endeavour to instil the good old Principles of Subjection and Obedience into those of Your Subjects, that are committed to our Care; Principles which some Men of a Factious and Rebellious Spirit, of late, have us'd all their Art and Industry, to condemn, and entirely explode, and for no other Reason, as we verily think, but for the utter Subversion of our excellent Constitution, both in Church and State.

May the Great and Almighty God, by whom Your Majesty and all other Princes reign, and to whom only You are accountable, crown Your great and signal Victories, with a speedy, lasting, and honourable Peace: May he long, very long, preserve Your Majesty in Life and Health, and make the Years of Your Reign over us, far exceed both in Number and Happiness any of Your Royal Predecessors, and when he shall be pleased to remove You from Governing one of the most glorious Kingdoms upon Earth; May he translate You to a Place of the greatest Bliss and Happiness in the Kingdom of Heaven.

This, Madam, is, and always shall be, the fervent and daily Prayer of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very Graciously, thank'd Mr. Goode for bringing of it, gave him Her Hand to kiss, and commanded him to thank his Brethren when he came into the Country.

---

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted,

---

---

A Collection of Addresses. N<sup>o</sup> 11.

---

---

PART II.

---

To ANNE, Queen of Great Britain.

The Humble and Thankful Address of the Queen's Protestant Subjects, the People called Quakers, in and about the City of London, on behalf of themselves, and the rest of their Persuasion.

WHEN we consider the Queen's Royal Regard to protect our Religious Liberty, and Her fresh Assurance, from the Throne, of Her Christian Resolution, to maintain the Indulgence by Law allowed to Scrupulous Consciences, and Her tender Care that the same may be transmitted to Posterity in the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover; we find ourselves concerned gratefully to acknowledge Her Goodness therein, and the ready Concurrence of Her Great Council therewith; taking this occasion to assure the Queen, of our Duty and Affection, and Peaceable Behaviour under Her Government, as is our Principle, and hath always been our Practice. And, we heartily desire, our Fellow-Subjects may lay aside all Animosities, and, in a Spirit of Love and Meekness, endeavour to out-do each other in Vertue and universal Charity. May it graciously please Almighty God to defend and bless Thee, O Queen! and guide Thee, by his Grace, in a long and prosperous Reign here, and afterwards, to receive Thee to Glory, is the hearty Prayer of Thy faithful Subjects.

Sign'd in behalf, and by Appointment of a Meeting of the said People in London, the 19th Day of the 10th Month, 1710.

Her MAJESTY's Answer.

I Thank you for your Address; and you may always depend on my Protection.

A GENERAL INDEX TO BOTH PARTS.

| Places Names.              | Page | Part | Introduc'd by                     | Presented by                        |
|----------------------------|------|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| A.                  |      |      |                                   |                                     |
| A Bingdon           | 14   | 2    | Earl of Abingdon.                 | Simon Harcourt, Esq ;        |
| St. Albans                 | 25   | 1    | Duke of Shrewsbury.               | John Gape, Esq ;             |
| Appleby                    | 4    | 2    | Duke of Shrewsbury.               | Edward Duncomb, Esq ;        |
| B.                  |      |      |                                   |                                     |
| Banbury                    | 26   | 1    | Earl of Abingdon.                 | Charles North, Esq ;         |
| Bath                       | 7    | 1    | Duke of Beaufort.                 | { William Blaithwaite, Esq ; |
| Bedford Clergy             | 40   | 1    | Lord Ashburnham.                  | { Samuel Trotman, Esq ;      |
| Berks County               | 13   | 2    | D. of Northumberland.             | Mr. St. John, and Mr. Humphreys     |
| Berks County               | 20   | 1    |                                   | Sir John Stonehouse, Bar .   |
| Brecon County and Town     | 26   | 1    | Duke of Ormond.                   | Richard Nevill, Esq ;        |
| Brecon Town                | 2    | 2    | Duke of Ormond.                   | { John Jeffreys, Esq ;       |
| Bridgnorth                 | 14   | 2    | Duke of Shrewsbury.               | { Edward Jeffreys, Esq ;     |
| Bucks County               | 22   | 2    | Lord Viscount Cheyne.             | Edward Jeffreys, Esq ;       |
|                            |      |      |                                   | Richard Creswell, Jnr. Esq ; |
| C.                  |      |      |                                   | { Simon Harcourt, Esq ;      |
| Cambridge County           | 27   | 2    | Tho. Coke, Esq ; V. Chamb. | { Thomas Chapman, Esq .      |
| Cambridge County           | 28   | 2    |                                   | John Bromley, Esq ;          |
| Cambridge Town             | 39   | 1    | Duke of Shrewsbury.               | Sir Rushout Cullen, Bar .    |
| Canterbury                 | 27   | 1    | Heneage, Ld Guernsey.      | Samuel Shephard, Esq ;       |
| Cardigan County            | 6    | 2    | Tho. Coke, Esq ; V. Chamb. | { Henry Lee, Esq ;           |
| Cardigan Town              | 6    | 2    |                                   | { John Hardress, Esq ;       |
| Carnarvan                  | 28   | 1    | Earl of Cholmondley.              | Sir Simon Harcourt, Knt .    |
| Chester County             | 36   | 2    | Duke of Devonshire.               | William Griffith, Esq ;      |
| Chester City               | 34   | 1    | Earl of Rochester.                | Crew Offley, Esq ;           |
| Cirencester                | 40   | 1    | Tho. Coke, Esq ; V. Chamb. | Sir Henry Bunbury, Bar .     |
| Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardness | 18   | 1    |                                   | Allen Bathurst, Esq ;        |
| Clitheroe                  | 22   | 1    | { Duke of Shrewsbury,             | { Nathaniel Herne, Esq ;     |
|                            |      |      | { Earl of Anglesea.               | { Frederick Herne, Esq ;     |
| C.                  |      |      |                                   | { Christopher Parker, Esq ;  |
| Cornwall County            | 1    | 1    | Earl of Bath.                     | { Edward Harvey, Esq ;       |
| Cornwall County            | 38   | 2    |                                   | James Buller, Esq ;          |
| Coventry Clergy            | 1    | 2    | Duke of Leeds.                    | { Reverend Mr. Cotterell,           |
| Coventry                   | 8    | 1    | Earl of Northampton.              | { Reverend Mr. Dagget.              |
| Coventry                   | 16   | 1    |                                   | Thomas Gery, Esq ;           |

| Places Names. |             | Part | Introduced by                       | Presented by   |
|----------------------|-------------|-------------|--|---|
| D.                   | Page |             |  |   |
| Denbigh County       | 8           | 2           | Duke of Ormond.                            | John Robinson, Esq;   |
| Derby County         | 7           | 2           | Earl of Scarfdale.                         | John Curzon, Esq;   |
| Devon County         | 3           | 1           | { Duke of Shrewsbury,Earl Poulet.      | Sir William Courtenay, Bar.   |
| Doncaster            | 43          | 1           | Duke of Leeds.                             | Sir George Cooke, Bar.  |
| Dorchester           | 25          | 2           | Earl Poulet.                               | Robert Coker, Esq;  |
| Dorset County        | 27          | 2           | Earl Poulet.                               | Thomas Chaffin, Esq;  |
| Durham County        | 11          | 1           |  | The High-Sheriff.   |
| Durham County        | 31          | 2           |  | Lord Dartmouth.   |
| Durham City          | 11          | 1           |  |   |
| E.                   |             |             |  |   |
| East-Grinstead       | 31          | 1           | Lord Ashburnham.                           | Henry Campion, Esq;   |
| Ely                  | 23          | 2           | Earl of Orford.                            | David Rowlands, Esq;  |
| Essex County         | 32          | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | { Sir Charles Barrington, Bar.William Fytche, Esq;  |
| Exeter Clergy        | 33          | 2           | Robert Harley, Chan. Ex.                   | Dr. Francis Atterbury.  |
| Exeter               | 7           | 1           |  | Earl Poulet.  |
| F.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Flint County         | 39          | 1           |  | Sir Thomas Hanmer, Bar.   |
| Fowey                | 31          | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Geo. Granville, Esq;  |
| G.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Glamorgan County     | 46          | 1           | Sir Tho. Mansell.                          | The High-Sheriff.   |
| Gloucester Clergy    | 37          | 2           | Duke of Beaufort.                          | The Honourable Mr. Brydges.   |
| Gloucester County    | 1           | 1           | Duke of Beaufort.                          | Allen Bathurst, Esq;  |
| Gloucester City      | 4           | 1           |  |   |
| Great Grimesby       | 19          | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | { Arthur Moore, Esq;William Cotesworth, Esq;Sir James Etheridge,Reverend Mr. Millicamp,Mr. Geo. Bruere. |
| Great Marlow         | 26          | 2           | Duke of Beaufort.                          |   |
| H.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Haverford West       | 35          | 1           | Duke of Ormond.                            | John Laugharne, Esq;  |
| Hellston             | 19          | 2           |  |   |
| Hereford County      | 2           | 1           | Duke of Beaufort.                          | { Lord Viscount Scudamore;John Price, Esq;  |
| Hereford City        | 45          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Thomas Foley, Esq;  |
| Hertford County      | 18          | 2           | Earl of Salisbury.                         | { Ralph Freman, Jun. Esq;Thomas Halsey, Esq;William Gore, Esq;  |
| Hertford Town        | 2           | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Charles Cesar, Esq;   |
| Hertford Town        | 12          | 2           | Lord Cowper, Ld. Chanc.                    | William Monson, Esq;  |
| Hindon               | 30          | 2           | Duke of Beaufort.                          | George Morley, Esq;   |
| Holt                 | 34          | 2           | Earl Poulett.                              | William Carter, Esq;  |
| Hyeth Port           | 15          | 2           | E. of Dorset and Middlf.                   | Julius Deeds.   |
| I.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Ilcester             | 10          | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | James Johnston, Esq;  |
| K.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Kent County          | 21          | 2           | Duke of Beaufort.                          | Sir Thomas Style, Bar.  |
| Kent County          | 24          | 2           | E. of Dorset and Middlf.                   | { Sir Thomas Palmer, Bar.David Polhill, Esq;  |
| L.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Lancaster County     | 10          | 1           | { Duke of Shrewsbury,Earl of Anglesea. | Richard Shuttleworth, Esq;  |
| Launceston           | 23          | 2           | Tho. Coke, Esq; V. Chamb.                  | { Lord Hyde,William Cary, Esq;Geo. Granville, Esq;  |

| Places Names. | Page | Part | Introduced by                       | Presented by   |
|----------------------|-------------|-------------|--|---|
| Leicester County     | 15          | 1           | Earl of Denbigh.                           | Sir Geo. Beaumont, Bar.   |
| Leicester Town       | 23          | 1           | Earl of Denbigh.                           | Sir Geo. Beaumont, Bar.   |
| Lincoln City         | 7           | 2           | Lord Dartmouth.                            | Sir Thomas Meres.   |
| Lindsey              | 11          | 2           | Duchess of Ormond.                         | Cha. Caldecott, Esq;  |
| Litchfield           | 14          | 1           | Duke of Leeds.                             | John Cotes, Esq;  |
| London Clergy        | 29          | 2           | Lord Bishop of London.                     | Lord Bishop of London.  |
| LONDON City          | 2           | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | { Sir Sam. Garrard, Bar. LordMayor, and Court of Aldermen.    |
| London Lientenancy   | 39          | 2           | Ditto.                                     | Ditto.  |
| London Lieutenancy   | 4           | 1           |  |   |
| Lurgeshall           | 15          | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Cha. Lord Bruce.  |
| Ludlow               | 23          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Sir Thomas Powis, Knt.  |
| M.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Maldon               | 18          | 2           | Earl Rivers.                               | { Sir Richard Child, Bar.John Comyns, Esq;                    |
| Marlborough          | 42          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Cha. Lord Bruce.  |
| Middlesex County     | 20          | 1           |  |   |
| Minehead             | 44          | 1           | Duke of Ormond.                            | Sir Jacob Banks.  |
| Monmouth County      | 13          | 1           | Earl of Pembroke.                          | Earl of Pembroke.   |
| Monmouth Town        | 46          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Clayton Milborn, Esq;   |
| N.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Newcastle upon Tine  | 30          | 1           | Earl of Scarborough.                       | William Carr, Esq;  |
| Newton               | 28          | 1           | Earl of Anglesey.                          | John Ward, Esq;   |
| Norfolk County       | 26          | 2           | Duke of Beaufort.                          | { Sir John Woodhouse, Bar.Sir Jacob Astley, Bar.              |
| Northampton County   | 3           | 1           | Earl of Northampton.                       | { Sir Justinian Isham, Bar.Tho. Cartwright, Esq;              |
| Northampton          | 3           | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Francis Arundell, Esq;  |
| Northampton County   | 24          | 1           | Earl of Sunderland.                        | { Sir Matthew Dudley,Robert Bretton, Esq;                     |
| Norwich City         | 32          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | { Sir Edmond Bacon, Bar.Sir Jacob Astley, Bar.                |
| Norwich Militia      | 47          | 1           | Duke of Devonshire.                        | { Sir John Holland, Bar.Ash Windham, Esq;                     |
| Nottingham           | 43          | 1           | Duke of Leeds.                             | Robert Sacheverell, Esq;  |
| Nottingham           | 16          | 2           | Marquis of Dorchester.                     | Robie Sherwin, Esq;   |
| O.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Orford               | 37          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Sir Edward Turner, Knt.   |
| Oxford Clergy        | 38          | 2           | The Lord-Keeper.                           | Reverend Mr. Valey.   |
| Oxford County        | 18          | 1           | { Duke of Shrewsbury,Earl of Abingdon. | Sir Robert Jenkinson, Bar.  |
| Oxford University    | 21          | 1           | Duke of Ormond.                            | The Vice-Chancellor, &c.  |
| Oxford City          | 22          | 1           | { Duke of Shrewsbury,Earl of Abingdon. | Sir John Walter, Bar.   |
| P.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Pembroke County      | 9           | 2           | Tho. Coke, Esq; V. Chamb.                  | Sir John Packington, Bar.   |
| Pembroke County      | 36          | 1           |  | Wiriot Owen, Esq;   |
| Peterborough Clergy  | 40          | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Mr. Goode.  |
| Peterborough City    | 38          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.                        | Cha. Cecill, Esq;   |
| Q.                   |             |             |  |   |
| The Quakers.         | 41          | 2           |  |   |
| R.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Radnor County        | 9           | 1           | { Earl of Pembroke andMontgomery.      | { Robert Harley, Esq;Thomas Harley, Esq;                      |
| S.                   |             |             |  |   |
| Salop Clergy         | 30          | 2           | Mr. Harley, Cha. of Exch.                  | { Dr. Ottley, Archdeacon,Dr. Robert Phillips,Mr. Andrews. |

| Places Names. | Page | Part | Introduced by     | Presented by           |
|----------------------|-------------|-------------|--------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Salop County         | 34          | 2           | Duke of Beaufort.        | Right Hon. Lord Kilmorey.     |
| Salop County         | 20          | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.      | Right Hon. Henry Ld Newport:  |
| Saltaſh              | 10          | 2           | Mr. V. Chamberlain.      | Alexander Pendarves, Esq;     |
| Sarum                | 27          | 1           | Earl of Pembroke.        | John Gauntlett, Esq;          |
| Shrewsbury           | 5           | 2           | Mr. V. Chamberlain.      | John Kynaston, Esq;           |
| Somerſet County      | 34          | 1           | Duke of Ormond.          | Sir William Wyndham, Bar.     |
| Southampton Clergy   | 39          | 2           | Duke of Shrewsbury.      | Peter Mews, Esq;              |
| Southampton County   | 17          | 2           | Duke of Beaufort.        | High Sheriff.                 |
| Southampton County   | 12          | 1           |                          |                               |
| Suffolk County       | 12          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.      | Sir Thomas Hanmer, Bar.       |
|                      |             |             | { Duke of Shrewsbury,    |                               |
| Surrey County        | 19          | 1           | { D. of Northumberland.  | Hon. Heneage Finch, Esq;      |
| Suſſex County        | 30          | 1           | Rt. Hon. Ld. Aſhburnham  | Sir Geo. Parker, Bar.         |
| Stafford Clergy      | 22          | 2           | Duke of Beaufort.        | { Reverend Dr. Ryves,         |
| Stafford County      | 15          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.      | { Reverend Mr. Taylor.        |
| Stamford             | 35          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.      | Hon. Henry Pagett, Esq;       |
|                      |             |             |                          | { Hon. Cha. Cecill, Esq;      |
|                      |             |             |                          | { Hon. Cha. Bertie, Esq;      |
| T.                   |             |             |                          |                               |
| Tamworth             | 33          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.      | Mr. Serjeant Girdler.         |
|                      |             |             | { Duke of Ormond,        |                               |
| Taunton              | 14          | 1           | { Duke of Shrewsbury.    | Henry Portman, Esq;           |
| Totneſs              | 41          | 1           |                          | Earl Poulett.                 |
| W.                   |             |             |                          |                               |
| Wallingford          | 29          | 1           | Earl of Abingdon.        | The Mayor.                    |
| Warwick County       | 6           | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.      | Sir John Mordaunt, Bar.       |
|                      |             |             | { Duke of Shrewsbury,    |                               |
| Warwick Town         | 6           | 1           | { Rt. Hon. Ld Brooke.    | Hon. Fran. Grevile, Esq;      |
| Wells                | 42          | 1           |                          | Duke of Ormond.               |
|                      |             |             | { Duke of Shrewsbury,    |                               |
| Westbury             | 17          | 1           | { Earl of Abingdon.      | Francis Annelley, Esq;        |
| Westminster          | 10          | 1           | Duke of Ormond.          | Thomas Medlicote, Esq;        |
| Westminster          | 16          | 1           |                          |                               |
| Wilts Clergy         | 38          | 1           | Duke of Buckingham.      | Rev. Mr. Archdeacon Yeate.    |
|                      |             |             | { Duke of Shrewsbury,    |                               |
| Wilts County         | 5           | 1           | { Earl of Pembroke.      | Hon. Sir Richard Howe, Bar.   |
| Wilts County         | 32          | 1           |                          |                               |
|                      |             |             |                          | William Peiſly, Esq;          |
|                      |             |             |                          | { Hon. Geo. Granville, Esq;   |
| Windfor              | 3           | 2           | D. of Northumberland.    | { William Bowles, Esq;        |
|                      |             |             |                          | { Charles Aldworth, Esq;      |
|                      |             |             |                          | { Reverend Mr. Dawson.        |
|                      |             |             |                          | Sir John Packington, Bar.     |
| Worceſter City       | 35          | 2           | Duke of Beaufort.        |                               |
| Worceſter County     | 8           | 1           |                          |                               |
| Wooton-Baſſet        | 36          | 1           | Duke of Shrewsbury.      | Henry St. John, Esq;          |
| Y                    |             |             |                          |                               |
| York County          | 19          | 1           | Duke of Leeds.           | Right Hon. Lord Viſc. Downie. |
| York County and City | 35          | 2           | Mr. Harley, Chan. of Ex. | Right Hon. Lord Viſc. Downie. |
| York Weſt-Riding     | 12          | 2           | Duke of Bolton.          | William Lowther, Esq;         |